OBITUARY

Tyrell Antiono Hardy Sr. was born on September 28, 1972. Mother, Deborah Hardy and raised by Kurl Foster. He received his education in the Baltimore Public School system. He unexpectedly fell asleep in death on May 18, 2023. He was well known, and friends of many. To know him was to love him.

'Rock' as he was known by his friends was loved by all who knew him. He was known as 'Man' by his family. He was a person with a big heart and he had love for everybody, also very respectful to everyone - young and old everywhere he went, you could spot him a mile away, by his walk and his gear. He had an eye for fashion and loved to dress for the occasion.

He was very devoted to his friends. Everyone who knew him had a special place in their heart for him. He loved music, sports, dancing, family and most of all his children. He had several jobs, barber, worker, price busters and Dap Processing. 'Rock' would always say 'I love you, here.' He wanted you to know that he loved you. When he said it, he meant it. He loved God and firmly believed the Bible was the word of God.

He's survived by sister, Felicia McGowan and brother, Melvin LaDamien Hardy, nieces; Paris, Lundun Ayz'ia and Pyru. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends and his grandmother Dorothy R. Brunson and special friend Rayshell Nelson.

A POEM FOR MY BROTHER

*Your actions were always kind
Your generous hand and all active mind
Anxious to please and loathe to offend
A loving brother and faithful friend
We'll miss you very much
