Harry was born on October 25, 1953 in Moose Lake, Manitoba. Our beloved father, brother, uncle, grandpa and great grandpa peacefully passed away at his home in Crossing Bay at the age of 71 years.

Growing up our pops lived in Grand Rapids for a short period of time then moved back to Moose Lake where he helped out his father, mother and little brother Rene. They had these two lovely horses Ned and Bessy which they loved to take care of. When he was thirteen years old he came to work in The Pas as a fisherman.

When Harry was 23 he met the love of his life, he always told us how beautiful she was and how she stole his heart the second he saw her. On December 16, 1978 they joined in Marriage and together they had 5 kids. They raised their kids in their forever home in Crossing Bay.

Harry was a hard worker, he had various jobs which included fisherman, logger, Heavy Duty Mechanic and Operator. The job he loved most was being a spiritual care giver at The Pas Correctional Centre, he worked here until his retirement. He helped a lot of people along the way. Harry was a very respected elder and mentor.

Our pops was a very traditional man, he would travel to other communities with his sidekick Kordell and some of his friends Johnny Cook, Brian Cook, Larri Gott, Norman Sanderson and Les Michell as well as many others. Harry had a fasting camp every spring, sweats, healing circles and he just loved camping in general. He was always there to help whoever was in need.

Harry our Pop was a very devoted dad, grandpa and great grandpa. He was the best father any of us could as for. He loved spending time with his children and families. He especially loved when he could see and carry his noochachim Gabriel. He would always come to The Pas and OCN to come visit friends and family, and sometimes go to enjoy the VLTs, or just sit around the mall eating his favorite soup and crackers from Donuts and Deli.

Harry Ballantyne "White Bear" will be forever missed.

Harry is survived by his children Josette Lathlin (Kevin), Rachel Ballantyne (Braden), Amy Ballantyne (John), Waylon Ballantyne (Kate), Denny Crain (Helen), Erica and Kordell; son in law Jimmy James Ducharme; sister Linda Ballantyne (Bob) and Marlene (Ron) Campbell; brothers in law Ken Crain (Angela), Lyle Crain (Sheryl), Keith "Spock" Crain; sisters in law Evelyn Ballantyne, Bertha Ballantyne; Godchildren Melody Knight, Jerilyn Ballantyne and Kirsten Ross; as well as nieces, nephews, and grandchildren too numerous to mention. If we missed anyone it was not intentional.

Harry is predeceased by his wife Marilyn; his father Louison "Wesew"; his mother Emily; father in law Arthur Crain; Mothers in law Rachel Crain and Josephine Budd; sister in law Delores Crain; his brothers Albert, Harvey, Adolph, Melvin, Laddie and Rene Ballantyne; sisters Lillian Allen, May Petrie, Mary Campbell; sons in law Lawrence James Campbell, Moses Ballantyne; grandson Gabriel.

If we missed anyone it was not intentional.
