

Autumn Daun Stahl

April 25, 1967 – March 31, 2025

Autumn Daun Stahl, age 57, of Luxemburg, WI, passed into God's waiting arms on Monday, March 31, 2025, leaving behind a lifetime of family and friends who will miss her dearly.

She was born on April 25, 1967, at Ripon Memorial Hospital, to Cherie Dorsey Anderson (John) and Paul Senner (Jeanne). She grew up in Ripon and Algoma, Wisconsin. As a child and young adult, she loved to sing and play the guitar and participated in a variety of academic and performance-based extracurricular activities. She delivered arguably one of her best acoustic performances at the young age of 10 years old alongside her cousin Tammy Munsey at the marriage of her mother and stepfather at Grace Lutheran Church in Ripon. She sang at several weddings and played an unforgettable Sally in "You're a good boy, Charlie Brown."

She was a very good student. After graduating from Algoma High School, she went on to earn a dual degree in business and French at Ripon College. Inspired by her favorite professor, Dr. Linda M. Clemente, Autumn traveled abroad to Paris during her junior year. Her love for travel carried through into adulthood, taking her on trips throughout the U.S. and to destinations in Mexico, Jamaica, Costa Rica, and more. She lived in a variety of cities throughout the Midwest until meeting her husband.

One of the very best decisions she ever made was to marry Stephen Stahl in 2016 in front of family on a beautiful beach in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. Together, the two built a life filled with love, shared adventures, and quiet moments, along with their beloved goldendoodle, Daisy Mae (Autumn LOVED middle names, including her own!).

Autumn's life was marked by a deep affection for her family, the quality time she sought with her mom and aunts, siblings, nieces and nephews, sisters-in-law, and cousins, and her youthful appreciation of the simple things in life. She was a devout Packers fan, a frequent diner at El Serape, loved a good fish fry, and never wore jeans without a solid black platform heel. She enjoyed reality TV and had more love for the Home Shopping Network than anyone of her generation should. She never tired of a good homemade meatloaf or lasagna, especially if made by her late Aunt Toni. Autumn will be remembered for her kind heart, unquestionable care and concern for others, the joy she found in the mundane, and a laugh that lit up a room.

Her loss leaves an enormous void for all who knew her, but her memory lives on in the hearts of all those whose lives she touched.

Autumn is survived by her beloved husband, Steve; four-year-old goldendoodle, Daisy Mae; nieces and nephews, Madison Huseboe of Milwaukee; Maxwell Huseboe of Whitewater; Marcus Wautier of Brillion; and Parker and Owen Anderson of Hilbert; Sofia and Lucas Huebner of Appleton; mother, Cherie Anderson of Ripon; father, Paul Senner of Appleton, stepfather, John Anderson of Ripon; stepmother, Jeanne Senner of Appleton; sister, Jennifer Huseboe (Kent) of Ripon; brother, John Anderson (Janel) of Hilbert; sister, Melissa Anderson of Michigan; sister, Amber Huebner; brother, Bill Senner; in-laws, Kathy Stahl, Robert (Denise Davister) Stahl, Laurie (Joe) Enderby, Tom (Kelly Crossman) Stahl, Jennifer Stahl (Tony DellaCioppa), Rebecca Stahl (Quinton Farina), and Stephanie Stahl (Kyle Wyman).
