

Judy Schweigerdt

Judy was born in Sturgis, SD, on March 21, 1944, to Merle and Jennie Young. She moved to Rapid City, SD, in the early fifties and attended school in Rapid City and worked for various employers until her marriage to Jim Schweigerdt on October 28, 1960. She liked bowling and coached many junior bowlers through the years. Later in life, she worked out of the home as a bookkeeper. On a Sunday afternoon, you could quite often find her shouting "B-I-N-G-O" at the local TREA. She cherished the moments working outdoors in the garden and dotting over her flowers. She loved running around "treasure hunting" at various garage and rummage sales with friends. She enjoyed making Jim think he was the boss. Her concern was the well-being of her family and friends.

Judith "Judy" Schweigerdt walked the path to heaven on December 30, 2014.

She is survived by her husband, James "Jim"; four sons, Jerry (Cassie), Rapid City, Jeff, Rapid City, Jack (Sheryl), Pahrump, NV, and John "JR" (Christina), Boulder, CO; five grandchildren, Mathew, Charles, Abigail, Andrew, and Luke; one sister, Henrietta (Kenny) McNenny; one brother, Merle Dale (Linda) Young; sister-in-law, Janice (Dennis) Booth; and numerous nieces, nephews, and friends. She was also considered an adopted mother for many individuals.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Merle and Jennie Young; and one brother, Gerald Young.

A memorial has been established, in lieu of flowers, please consider Nathan Adelson Hospice of Pahrump, Nevada.

In Loving Memory Of

"I am standing on the shore on the seashore. A ship spreads her sails to the morning breeze and starts for the ocean. I stand watching her until she fades on the horizon, and someone at my side says, 'she is gone!' Gone where? The loss of sight is in Me, not in Her. Just at the moment when someone says, 'she is gone', there are others who are watching her coming. Other voices take up the glad shout, 'Here she comes!' And that is Dying."

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys - -
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief - -
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee - -
God wanted me now: He set me free.*
