WANDA'S Life & Legacy

Wanda Joyce Middleton, 74, of Coatesville, PA, was called home to be with the Lord Friday, October 2, 2026 after a lengthy illness at the King of Prussia Nursing & Rehab.

Born in Philadelphia, PA, she was the daughter of the late William Knight, Sr. and Elizabeth Holsey Knight.

Wanda was a 1969 graduate from Downingtown Industrial & Agriculture School. She met and married the love of her life Thomas G. Middleton, III. Together they raised a family and shared 54 years of marriage.

Wanda was a longtime, faithful member of the First Baptist Church of Passtown, where she shared her heart and talents as a leader in the day care and a dedicated voice in the church choir. She lead several songs over the years with her beautiful and inspirational voice.

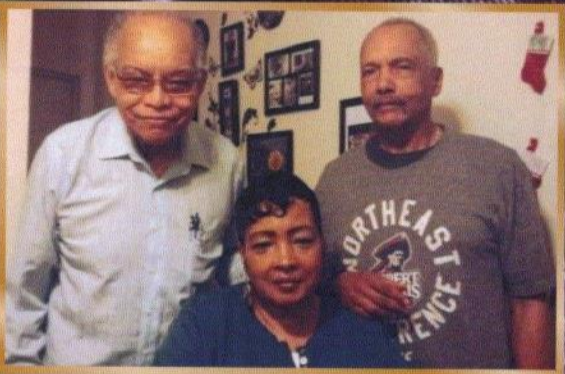

She had an exceptional eye for style and had a deep love for music, singing, and traveling, and she was widely recognized for always dressing in the highest fashion. Her shopping excursions were legendary, especially when hunting for the perfect pocketbook, shoes and jewelry to complete her signature looks.

Above all, Wanda's heart belonged to her people. She was a mother to many, offering warmth, guidance, and love to everyone who crossed her path. She cherished making memories with her beloved "Kolors Crew" and enjoyed her annual trips to the Berks Jazz Fest with her husband.

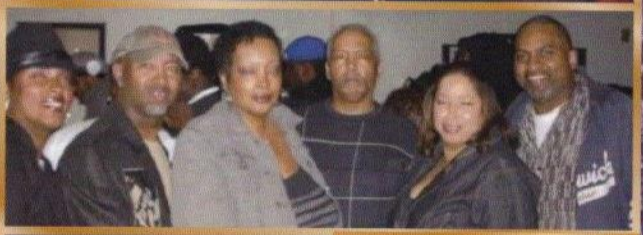

Her vibrant spirit, impeccable style, and nurturing soul will be deeply missed by her beloved husband, Thomas G. Middleton III of Coatesville; daughter, Kisha Middleton of Baltimore MD; step-daughter, Dana Winkey of PA; step-sons, Kevin Townley and Tom Legree of Atlanta, GA; 12 grandchildren, many great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

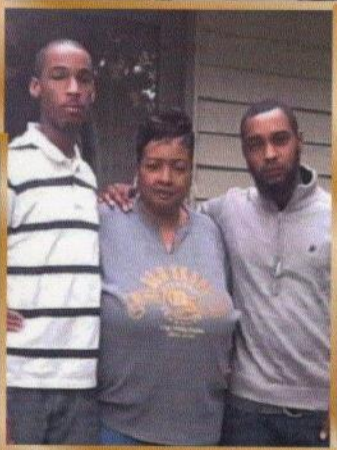

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by a son, Eric Charles Knight, Sr. and a brother, John W. Knight, Jr.
