

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Joyce June Schmidt

(nee Stahl)

June 5, 1928 – April 23, 2024

FUNERAL SERVICE

Sunday, April 28, 2024

3:00 p.m.

Trinity Lutheran Church

Dundee, Wisconsin

OFFICIANT

Pastor Bobby Oberg

FINAL RESTING PLACE

Trinity Lutheran Cemetery

Dundee, Wisconsin

Joyce June Schmidt (nee Stahl), 95, went to her eternal home with the Lord on April 23, 2024, with family at her side.

Joyce was born on June 5, 1928, in Beechwood at the family farm. She was the second oldest child born to Monroe "Bob" and Lorena Stahl (nee Krueger). Joyce attended grade school in Beechwood and then graduated from Kewaskum High School in 1946. She fondly reminisced about early years working on the farm where she learned her strong work ethic.

Joyce started working at Amity in West Bend after High School and remained there until her retirement. She also helped with the book work for Schmidt Brothers Excavating. Joyce was confirmed at St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church in Beechwood in 1942. This is also where she married Eugene Schmidt on June 20, 1953. They made their home in Beechwood where she remained for 94 years. Joyce and Gene were members of the Trinity Lutheran Church in Dundee. She was also a Sunday School teacher and fondly talked about helping with the Childrens Christmas Programs.

Joyce never had any children of her own, but that didn't stop her from treating her many nieces and nephews as her own, especially her sister Bev's family. She showed them the importance of paying it forward and serving others by popping in with a homemade meal or doing a surprise cleaning of a busy mom's house. Her lap was a safe place for extra snuggles and hearing her sing Jesus Loves Me. Growing up in a generation that didn't drive she hired a teacher and learned to drive in her 50's and loved the freedom this gave her.

Joyce was preceded in death by her husband, Eugene Schmidt; parents, Monroe and Lorena; siblings, Eunice (Willard) Eimmermann, Donald (Barb) Stahl, and Beverly (Louis) Luedtke; brothers-in-law, Mike (Lilly) Schmidt, Jerome Schmidt, Elmer Schmidt, and Howard Narges; sisters-in-law, Sylvia (William) Burke and Carol Koth.

Joyce is survived by sisters-in-law, Phyllis Narges, Lois Schmidt, and Gayle Schmidt; brother-in-law, Kenneth Koth; and her special nieces and nephews, Gina (Dick) Wilson, Brenda (Keith) Mueller, and Dale (April) Burke.

She is further survived by many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and even great-great-nieces, and great-great-nephews.

Memorials in Joyce's name can be directed to the Trinity Lutheran Church Dundee Building Fund.

The family would like to thank the staff at Compassion Heights in West Bend for the loving care they gave to Joyce this past year.

PALLBEARERS

Glen Luedtke, Dale Burke, Kurt Schmidt,
Jim Schmidt, Mark Stahl, and Luke Wilson

