High Flight

*Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
of sun-split clouds,—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung*

*High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air ....
Up, up the long, delirious, burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or even eagle flew—
And, while with silent lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.
-John Gillespie Magee, Jr.*

Robert Edward Mills

Sergeant Major Robert Edward Mills, a proud veteran, loving husband, and devoted family man, passed away on April 8, 2026, in Kaufman, Texas. Born on February 14, 1940, in Upland, Pennsylvania, he lived a life marked by service, dedication, and love.

Robert was the beloved husband of the late Sigrid Mills and the son of Howard and Elizabeth Mills. He is survived by his two daughters, Angel Moore and Michelle Mills; four grandchildren, Athena Mills, Daphne Earnhardt, Karine McAllister, and Rory McAllister; as well as six great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews who brought him immense joy.

A distinguished career in the United States Army defined much of Robert's life. Enlisting on July 24, 1959, he served his country with honor for nearly three decades until his retirement on March 31, 1989. Rising to the rank of Sergeant Major at Fort Bliss in Texas, Robert exemplified leadership and commitment throughout his military service. His pride in serving his country was evident to all who knew him. Beyond his military achievements, Robert was a loving husband and devoted father. His legacy lives through the lives of those he touched.

May his memory bring comfort to those who knew him.

Sigrid Gude Mills
