

In Our Hearts

We thought of you today.

But that is nothing new.

We thought about you yesterday.

And days before that too.

We think of you in silence.

We often speak your name.

Now all we have are memories.

And your picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake.

With which we'll never part.

God has you in his keeping.

We have you in our heart.

Her Story

Mrs. Beverly Joyce Barrett was born on October 18, 1959, in Jacksonville, Florida, to Eliza Harris and raised by Frank Brown. She was the third oldest of seven siblings, who were all protective, loyal, and loving.

From a young age, Mrs. Barrett served as a medical housekeeper at the University of Florida Shands and the 20th Street Mental Health Resource Facility. She dedicated over three decades to providing a clean and safe environment for patients. Throughout her career, she witnessed the challenges faced by patients and always emphasized the importance of gratitude for one's health.

During her journey, Mrs. Barrett formed lifelong friendships with individuals such as Ms. May'ola, Ms. Annette, Ms. Jackie, and Mrs. Scarlett Jacobs. She expresses her gratitude to those who have supported her throughout her life, stating, "You are the ones who care."

Mrs. Barrett is preceded in death by her mother, Eliza Harris; her aunts: Rosa Collins and Mary Harris; her uncles: George, Herbert, and Lavinski Harris; her sister: Gail Harrison; her brother: Mark Williams; niece: Irene Harrison; and nephews Johnathan Harris and Joe K. Carey.

She is survived by her sons, Tony Harris (Jeanette) and Joseph Harris (Chelsie); her grandchildren: Toni, Amari, Eliza, Ymasgan, Samori, and Tikuri-Luli Harris; her sisters: (Twin) Brenda Ellington, Marilyn Evans (Al), and Karen Coney; her cousins: Pam, Walter, and Nicola Harris; she also leaves a host of nieces, great nieces, nephews, and great nephews who were like her own children.
