

Pallbearers

Ryne Stewart Derek Bland
Tyler Stewart Brett Holland
Lee Bland Herschel Durrence

Memorials may be given to the Tattnall CARES or the Glennville First Baptist Church

Acknowledgments

*The family of Mrs. Carolyn Durrence Dixon extends our sincerest gratitude for the many comforting expressions of heartfelt kindness and sympathy extended during our time of sorrow.
No words can express our gratitude; our spirits have been uplifted and our hearts overwhelmed with love. We pray that God blesses and keeps you in His loving care. Continue to pray for us as we pray for you.*

The Family

GLENNVILLE
FUNERAL HOME

(912) 654-1402

www.glennvillefuneralhome.com

Carolyn
DURRENCE DIXON

January 13, 1939 — March 14, 2025

Wednesday, March 19, 2025 | 11:00 a.m.
Glennville First Baptist Church
Glennville, Georgia

Obituary

Carolyn Durrence Dixon, age 86, passed away on Friday, March 14, 2025 at Evans Memorial Hospital in Claxton. She was born in Mendes on January 13, 1939, to Charlie “Mutt” and Mildred “Midge” Wilson Durrence and had lived in Glennville all of her life.

A 1956 graduate of Glennville High School, Carolyn furthered her education at Draughon’s Business College in Savannah. Carolyn was proud to be crowned the last Tomato Queen in 1954, a testament to her vibrant spirit and her enduring ties to local traditions.

After an illustrious career spanning over 40 years at Glennville Bank, Carolyn enjoyed her well-earned retirement, leaving behind a legacy of professionalism and kindness that inspired her colleagues and the many patrons she served. Her commitment to her work was paralleled by her deep-rooted connections within the Glennville community.

Her life was rich with cherished memories, one of which included her warm and inviting kitchen, where she created family favorites that nurtured both body and soul. She found immense joy in the laughter and smiles of her great-grandchildren, who were undoubtedly her heart.

Her faith was a guiding force, and as a long-time member of the Glennville First Baptist Church, she touched many lives as a Sunday school teacher and choir member. Carolyn’s contributions to her church were not merely acts of service; they were reflections of her deep faith and love for her community.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 59 years, Claudius “Dickey” Dixon; her daughter, Karla Dixon Beecher; and her brother, Charles Durrence.

Carolyn is survived by her daughter and son in law, Kanda and O.H. Daniel of Bellville; sister and brother in law, Suzy and Lou Coons of Alexandria, VA; her grandchildren, Cliff (Candice) Kicklighter and Erin Masters; great grandchildren, Dixon, Isaac, Brenna and Karly Kicklighter and Hines Masters; several nieces and nephews.

Order of Service

Processional Mrs. Miriam Porter
Whispering Hope

Words of Greeting Rev. Mike Howard

Words of Remembrance-Mr. Ronnie Barnhill

Word In Song Mrs. Jennifer Bland
The Goodness of God

Words of Comfort Rev. Mike Howard

Word in Song Congregation
Victory In Jesus

Benediction Rev. Mike Howard

Recessional Mrs. Miriam Porter
When The Saints Go Marching In

Following the service, she will be laid to rest at Glennville City Cemetery