

Acknowledgements

The family of Mr. Glenn Davis wishes to express our sincere gratitude for all your acts of kindness during our time of loss and sorrow. Your prayers, comforting words, visits, and thoughtful gestures have been a source of strength and encouragement to us. We deeply appreciate the love and support from our family, friends, and community during this difficult time. Your kindness has reminded us of the beauty of faith, love, and friendship. May God bless each of you abundantly and continue to keep you in His care.

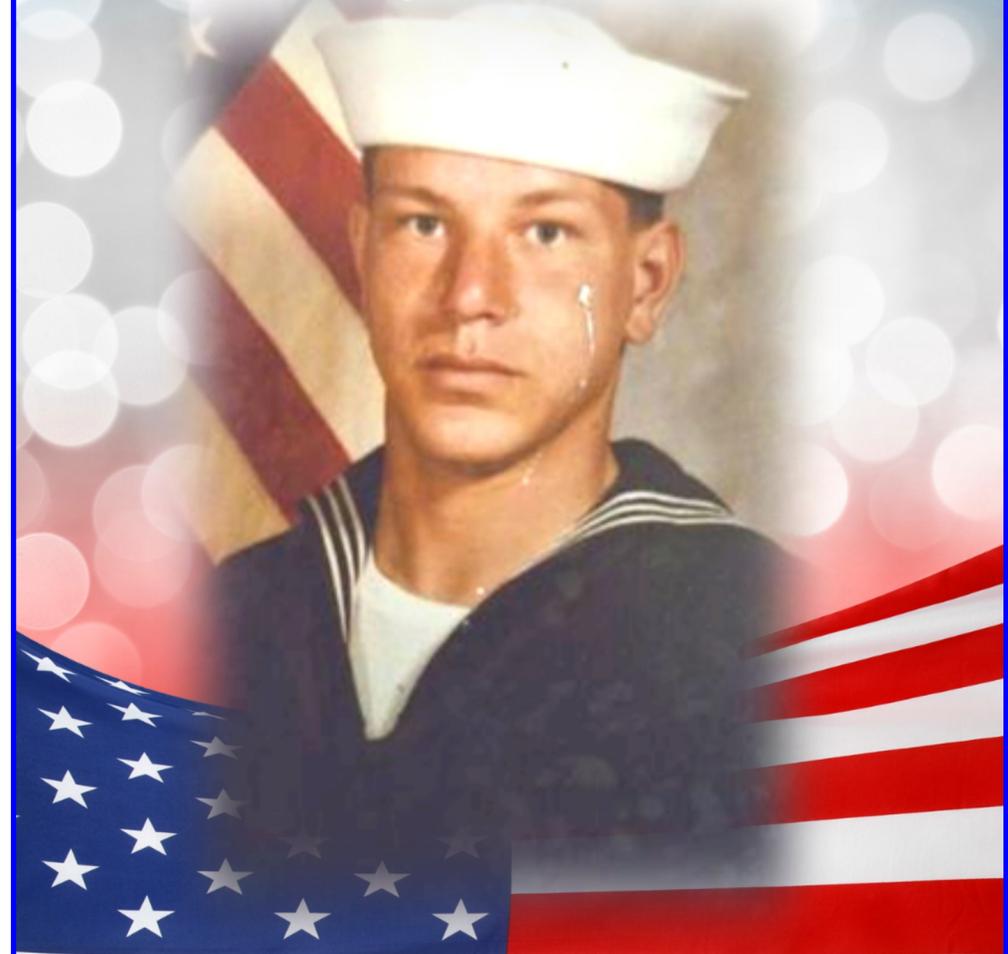

*With heartfelt thanks,
The Family*

*Pallbearers
& Floral Attendants
Family and Friends*

 Trinity Graphics, Inc.
(912) 238-9646 ~ Mobile (912) 604-1986
Email: trinitygraphicsinc@gmail.com

Memorial Services for Mr. Glenn Davis

Friday, February 21, 2025 | 2 P.M.

THE ADAMS CHAPEL

510 Stephenson Ave.
Savannah, GA 31405

In Loving Memory of

Mr. Glenn Davis

Glenn Eric Davis was born on October 31, 1964, in Swainsboro, Georgia to Eulie and Betty Cooper Davis. His parents preceded him in death.

Glenn served in the United States Navy aboard the USS Josephus Daniels shortly after graduating from Savannah High School in 1983.

He had a lot of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. He liked to meet new people and could talk to almost anyone about almost any subject.

Glenn loved to go flea markets, yard sales, thrift shops and had a talent for buying at a low price and selling for a profit. His family referred to his home as a "Mini Museum," as he loved collecting all things "Savannah." His last quest was for Savannah and Tybee Island post cards.

He watched Jeopardy most every night and usually knew the correct answers. While he loved music, his only musical talent was playing, or attempting to play the harmonica!

Glenn was called to eternal rest on February 11, 2025, transitioning at St. Joseph's Hospital. Preceding him in death in addition to his parents are his grandparents, Ernest and Winifred Cooper, and Oscar and Maude Davis; and his brother, Jeffery and sister, Guinn.

He leaves to cherish his wonderful memories, his wife, Michelle Davis; his son, Justin E. Davis and his mother, Sheena Gasque; his grandchildren, Jaleal, CallHi', and Juelle Davis; sisters, Donna Conyers (Fred) of Statesboro, GA, Teresa Nessmith of Statesboro, GA, and Katrina Smiley (Butch) of Statesboro, GA; brothers, Clayton Davis of Savannah, GA. Ernie Davis (Audrey) of Ellabell, GA; and Jay Davis of Savannah, GA; along with many other family members and friends.

