Julia Mae Pruitt was born on May 10, 1932 in Montgomery Alabama, to the late John Pruitt Sr, and Edna Ann Washington-Pruitt. Her Grandparents were George Washington and Joanna Washington. Julia's children and family have witnessed the exceptional abilities she possessed, She acted productively using knowledge, understanding, experience, common sense, wit, and insight to forecast and plan for the future. She was an industrious woman, and because of this her children and family were blessed. She will always be loved and remembered, but never forgotten.

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. ---- John 11:25-2

A Tribute To Our Mother

When I would call you, I would say, "hello mother dear, this is your number one." But in reality, you were my number one. I'm going to really miss my calls and visits with my favorite girl. Coming to Cincinnati will never be the same. Love you mom, Sonny.

Wonderful Mother

God made a wonderful mother,
A mother who never grows old;
He made her smile of the sunshine,
And He moulded her heart of pure gold;
In her eyes He placed bright shining stars,
In her cheeks fair roses you see;
God made a wonderful mother,
And He gave that dear mother to me.

-Elder Norman Stokes

Just because she's your mom and she's going to love you forever, no matter what ---you can't treat her just any old way and think it doesn't matter. Don't treat the person who loves you the most....the worst. Don't take her for granted. She may not let you see it, but your shortness, impatience, and harsh words may make her steal away to a quiet place and cry. Her heart hurts to understand why you seem angry with her. She will not always agree with you, but she will always love you. And it doesn't matter how old you are, or how old she is....treasure your mom. You'll never have another one.
