

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Obituary

Annie Pearl Williams, "Ann", was born on February 2, 1950, in Selma, Alabama, to the union of John and Daisy Williams, the third eldest of nine children.

Ann graduated from Hughes High School. She worked as a group home manager for years until retirement.

Ann accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age. She had a BIG BOLD personality. She loved life, her children, her grandchildren, her great-granddaughter, and her extended family. She loved to laugh and make others laugh. She also enjoyed cooking and playing the card game Spades.

Ann was preceded in death by her mother and father, John and Daisy Williams; brothers, John Robinson and Tyrone Williams; and sisters, Carolyn Brewster and Barbara Jackson.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Tyrone Washington; her daughter, Kimberly Williams; her granddaughters, Hydrea Williams and Keyshia Williams; her grandson, Richard Williams; and one great-granddaughter. She also leaves behind one brother, Edward Williams (Kecia); three sisters, Sara Samuel, Joyce Smith, and Johnnie Williams; two sisters-in-law, Diane Williams and Lois Whity; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.

Ann is loved and will be greatly missed.

Let not your Heart
be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many Mansions;
if it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again, and receive you unto myself;
that where I am, there ye may be also.

Peace I leave with you,
my peace I give unto you;
not as the world giveth, give I unto you.

*Let not your heart be troubled,
neither let it be afraid.*
- John 14:1-3,27
