23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Tracy E. Barlow on December 6, 2024, at Hospice of Blue Ash. Tracy met her Heavenly Father on that day, leaving behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. Tracy accepted Christ at an early age. Tracy trusted in God and held on to His unchanging hands knowing when departed this earth, she would be with the Lord.

Tracy was preceded in death by her parents, Sonia and William Brady; her grandsons Chevis L. Jackson and DaQuan Leary; her grandmother Gertrude Willias and grandfather Charley J. Brown; as well as her aunt and uncle Ardean and Samuel White. Children Father and good Friend Michael R. Jackson Sr. and her best friends, Claudia Gary and Bonnie Dixon.

Tracy leaves to cherish her memory, William Barlow; sons Michael R. Jackson II (Ann), William Barlow Jr. (Tasha), Keith Blankumsee, and one daughter Kellie R. Jackson; granddaughters Shelby and Sydney Jackson, Erica Chapman; grandsons O'Shea Jackson, Tyrone Maye, great-granddaughter Milyn, and three great-grandsons, Monaco, Kyler Jackson, and Chevis (CJ) Jackson. Tracy also leaves behind special godchildren: Aisha, Morris (Diggie), Mariah, Noah, and Ari. Tracy's life was enriched by her bonus sons: Kenneth Gary, Claude Gary, Rodney Gary, and Terrence (Alex) Dobard-Gary.

She was the loving sister of William D.(Barbara)Brady Jr., James (Jewel)Brady, Dwayne (Julia) Brady, Dave (Marica) Brady, and Brian Peters, and cherished sister of Susan Brady, Donna Franklin, Geraldine (Peter) Boyd, and Tina Brady. She was also the beloved niece of Walter A. Brady and Henrietta Peters.

Tracy shared a lifelong sisterly bond with Bertha (John) McCoy. Tracy and Bert were the best, of the best, of friends. They could be found sitting in the car, in the driveway playing games on their tablets, talking and laughing during COVID. They were inseparable. Through their friendship Tracy also formed a special bond with Tasha King whom she considered to be her niece.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who supported Tracy during her final days, especially those who helped make her comfortable. A special thank you to Tracy Redmon and Bubba for traveling wherever Tracy was—whether in Cincinnati, Zone 15 (lol), or West Chester—to bring her meals with love.

Special thanks to Michael Harris for your unwavering love and support. Words cannot express the depth of your relationship with Tracy. You were her love, her confidant, her friend, and her travel companion. Tracy cherished you deeply and will forever hold the memories of your time together in her heart. Tracy cherished your family and those whom you all visited regularly. We thank them as well for the love and kindness they shared with Tracy.

We also express our thanks to all of Tracy's Friendship Village friends and neighbors for their kindness and support, which was greatly appreciated.

Geri Brady and Geraldine Boyd, we are forever grateful!!!!
