THE LIFE STORY OF MARC E.
Richardson
DECEMBER 16, 1982 ~ AUGUST 5, 2026

Marc Ethan Richardson was born on December 16, 1982, in Newark, New Jersey, the beloved son of Johnnie Richardson and the late Elizabeth Richardson. On August 5, 2026, God decided it was time for him to reunite with his mother and brother Keith Scrivens.

Born, raised, and baptized at Clear View Baptist Church, Marc was a good and faithful servant whose love for God remained a meaningful part of his life until his final rest. At an early age, Marc and his brother Michael discovered their love of music. Marc began filling in as needed on the drums and keyboard. That love and dedication continued throughout his teenage and adult years, expanding as he ran the sound ministry and later ventured into playing the keyboard every Sunday. Through his music, Marc blessed many and shared a gift that came naturally from his heart.

Marc received his education through the Newark Public School System and graduated from Weequahic High School. He was blessed with many talents, and his professional journey included working with Corbett Exterminating, Terminix, Professional Audio Consultants, and a A1/A2 for West Village Live.

In 2007, Marc reconnected with his childhood friend and the love of his life, his wife Candice. They were blessed to grow the family tree with three beautiful children: Mia, Makenna, and Marc Jr. Marc cherished his role as a husband and father and took great pride in the family they built together.

One of Marc’s favorite hobbies was grilling, especially during family gatherings. If you didn’t have one of his ribs, you definitely missed out! He found great joy and pride in bringing everyone together around good food, laughter, and conversation. For Marc, grilling was more than a hobby; it was one of the many ways he expressed his love for his family and created memories that will be cherished for years to come.

Marc leaves to cherish his fond memories; his beloved wife of 10 years, Candice Richardson; three loving children, Mia, Makenna, and Marc Richardson Jr.; his father, Johnnie Richardson; his mother-in-law, Vivian Iszard; his siblings, Michael (Tara) Richardson, Tekeshe (Darryl) Stanley, Veronica Scrivens, Tommy, Shalitha, and John; four uncles, James Richardson of Maxton, NC; Tyrone Richardson of Newark, NJ; Calvin Scriven of Beaufort, SC; and Ronald Scriven of Bluffton, SC; eight aunts, Louise Scriven of Jersey City, NJ; Sandra Scriven and Darlene Jackson of Ridgeland, SC; Joann (Charlie) Johnson of Garnett, SC; Mary Mosby and Joyce Richardson of Chicago, IL; Kathleen Richardson of Englewood, NJ; and Christine (Thomas) Williams of Belle Vernon, PA; one very special god-sister, Latrice McQueen; one bonus daughter, Kayla Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Marc’s life was a testament to the love he had for God, his family, his music, and the people whose lives he touched. Though his earthly journey has come to an end, the love he gave, the memories he created, and the joy he brought to those around him will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Rest well, Marc. Your work here is done, but your love and legacy will live on forever.
