The Obituary

Lee Helen McKoy was born in Clarkton, North Carolina, to the late Easter Mae McKoy and the late Daniel James McKoy. She was also preceded in death by Mr. James Wright, was great father in her life

Lee Helen was educated in Bladen County Schools where she graduated.

Lee Helen believed in going to church, and she was a faithful member of Zion chapel A.M.E. Zion Church until her health declined. She lived and cherished her church family.

Lee Helen loved gardening. She loved being on the outside, taking care of her flowers and plants. She also loved sewing and any kinds of crafts. Lee Helen loved people, cared for them and made sure they had what they needed. Her legacy of compassion and care for others touched many lives.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Tyrone Lee McKoy and Pamela Yvette McKoy Jimerson; grandchildren: Anika Walker, Jamel Jimerson, Jessica Ward (AJ), Tyrone Antwan Thurman and Hannah Corbett. She also leaves behind her siblings: Agnes Mumford, Lorenzo McKoy (Priscilla), Bennie McKoy (Pamela) Waymod (Valeria), Mavis Harvey (James) and Machele McCracken (Courtney); one aunt, Valerie McKoy; and her dear friend, Mary Witchett (her riding partner and shared conversations often). She also leaves a host of great-grands, nieces, and nephews.

*With gentle hands and giving heart.
You've straightened us out,
Kept us connected, and created a legacy
Our family can be proud of.*

*Thank you for your faith,
Your hard work, you love.
You are the beautiful foundation
Of our family, and we honor you today
And everyday.*

Your Loving Family

To Those Whom I Love & Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love,

and you can only guess

How much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love that you have shown,

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for a while that we must part,

So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.

And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me,

I will be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,

All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.
