Obituary

June Bradley was born to Joseph and Avis Bradley in Saginaw, Michigan, on September 29, 1941. She passed away on Tuesday, November 25, 2025, surrounded by her family in Ypsilanti, Michigan, which she called home for the past 12 years.

June walked through life, always being her authentic self. She could make people laugh without trying. She was a strong-willed, compassionate, and loving mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend. She was also extremely generous and was constantly helping others. June loved music, especially jazz, which was played on the saxophone, and she adored The Temptations.

June is survived by her daughters, Stephanie (Gregory) Dale, Monica Roach; son George Roach Jr.; her loving sister Vicki Lou Bradley, and grandchildren, Tiarra, Deeonta, Jason, and Gregory Jr. She is also survived by her great-grandchildren, Lyric, D'aire, and Aubrey. She will be greatly missed by her nieces/bonus daughters, Brigitte (Elgin) Batie, Hope Spencer, Victoria Garrett, Robin Garrett, and Carla Garrett.

June loved her family deeply and will be missed by her uncles, Edgar Bradley and Ernest Bradley, many nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends, including special nephew and niece, Andrew and Andrea Williams; Godchildren, Phyllis McDaniel, Tracey White, Turnell Simpson, and Kimberly Bond.

June was preceded in death by her mother and father; sisters, Joann Garrett, Betty Williams; uncle, James Bradley; niece, Darlene Williams; and nephew, Gary Spencer. The family would like to give a heart-filled thanks to Ivan E. Phillips and the staff of Paradise Funeral Chapel; Harmony Cares and its staff; Dr. Michael Allison; Elara Caring Hospice; Emily Kastner, Courtney Stanley, Aubrey Heffron, Erin Walker-Rutherford, Brittney Fountaine, and Briana Batie.

Please cherish June's memory and comfort her family as we navigate through this difficult time.

Mother

*God made many lovely things,
Sunsets and flowers and trees,
Birds and starlight and loyal friends.
And after He made all these,
He gave another gift more rare,
More loving and more true, a wonderful
Person most fair and caring and giving,
A mother dear as you.*
