I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh,
To love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now, He set me free.*

Obituary

Travis was a devoted father, loving son, partner, brother, uncle, cousin, nephew, and friend. He was known for his kind heart, quiet strength, and the deep love he had for his family. Those closest to him will remember his sense of humor, his loyalty, and the way he showed up for the people he cared about.

Travis was a proud graduate of Northland High School in 2009, where he participated in football and track. His love for football began early, starting little league football at the age of six. Travis then went on to continue his football career by playing semi-professional football with the Columbus Gladiators, later playing with the Sabers and most recently with the Columbus Fire. He also enjoyed flag football, always carrying his passion for the game.

Travis was deeply loved and supported by so many special people on and off the field.

He was preceded in death by his father, Travis T. Williams; grandmother, Carolyn Byrdsong; grandfather, Charles Byrdsong; grandmother, Joyce Newbern; cousin, William Roberts Byrdsong; and other dearly loved and missed family members.

Travis is survived by his beloved children, Tramya, Travis Jr., Deamonte, Janae, and Maurice, who were the center of his world; long-time partner, Staci; mother, ReNay (Edwind); his brother, Wesley; aunts, Charlanda (Keith), Carletta (Jeremiah), Charlene (Darrell), Mechelle, and Marlena Lacy; nieces, Amira, Amari, and Amyla; cousins, Tajee, Renesea, Giovanni (Maryann), Keith, Kaymionna, and K'vion; special grandma, Jane; grandpa, Lewis, Donna, and Wes Barnes; along with many extended family members and friends who will forever cherish his memory.
