

She Stayed Beautiful In Loving Memory of Pamela O'Neal Hill

Like the lily dressed in splendor, untouched by fear or doubt.
Pamela bloomed with grace and poise the world could not wear out.

Like the sun that greets each morning, steady in its golden light,
She never dimmed, she never waned, though cancer stole the night.

She never voiced her suffering, not one whisper, not one plea.
She simply shone with gentle faith the way stars crown the sea.

Like lilies clothed in beauty by God's own loving hand,
Pamela walked in quiet peace this world can't understand.
She was moonlight on the water, calm, elegant and true.
A quiet strength the darkness feared but never could undo.

With class and gentle dignity, she stood in tailored grace,
Always polished, always lovely, spirit shining through her face.
Blessed with three beloved daughters and a husband by her side.

Five sisters who adored her, grandchildren beaming pride.
A family wrapped around her like the shoreline wraps the sea,
She was cherished, she was treasured where our hearts will always be.

Though illness tried to touch her, it could not take her light,
For she carried Heaven's promise deep within her quiet fight.

She lived the words of scripture: "My peace I give to thee"
and "When you pass through waters, I will still be with thee."
Though now she rests in glory, where no more tears shall fall
Her beauty walks beside us still, we hear her softest call.

For those who trust in Jesus rise on eagle's wings above
And Pamela has taken flight on winds of grace and love.
So, when we feel the night grow long and grief too much to bear,

We'll see her in the morning light, in lilies blooming fair.
In every steadfast evergreen, in moon on quiet sea
We'll know that she is still with God ... and beautiful as can be!

Obituary

On Thursday evening, October 16, 2025, Pamela O'Neal Hill transitioned to her Heavenly home. Pamela was a godly woman that loved the Lord, her family, and relished her role as a virtuous woman found in Proverbs 31:10. She was rare and her price is "far above rubies". Pamela, a woman of great intelligence, she was wise, strong, and hardworking. She was a woman of beauty and bold determination. Pam feared the Lord.

Pamela O'Neal Hill was born February 27, 1962, in Cincinnati, Ohio to Clarence and Laura Mae O'Neal. Pamela attended Seton High School. She also was a licensed cosmetologist. She was a beautician, par excellent! She worked at the Internal Revenue Service for 35 years, where she received numerous awards for her outstanding service.

Pamela was a math whiz and very knowledgeable in current events. She loved the excitement of cheering on the Bengals and Reds with her family by her side. Pamela was an awesome cook, a seamstress, and interior home decorator. She kept her home beautiful and immaculate! If you knew Pamela, you'll remember her infectious smile and laughter.

Although Pamela's physical presence may no longer grace our lives, her tenacious spirit and legacy will continue to inspire and uplift us. We pray that her memory be a blessing and that we carry forth her legacy of love, compassion, and honor in all that we do! So as we all continue to grieve the loss of a Daughter, a Sister, an Aunt, a Cousin, a Niece and a Jewel of a Friend, we must remember Pamela was a fighter! She won the race!! Glory to God! "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith" (2 Timothy 4:7). We know that "a crown of righteousness" awaits her (2 Timothy 4:8).

Pamela was preceded in death by her father, Clarence O'Neal. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband of 38 years, Robert Hill, Jr.; three daughters: Jasmine, Classie, and Asya; stepdaughter, Ciara; and grandchildren: Lawrence, Carti'ere, Legend, Amari, Armani, Marcus, MarNaja, Mahki, Mahayla. She also leaves behind her mother, Laura Mae O'Neal; sisters: Darlene Hunter, Gwen O'Neal, Denise Rushing (John), Clarice Wyatt (Randall), Trina Betts and stepsister Vicki Stanford; sisters-in-law: Julia Love and Sara Hill. A host of nieces / nephews, great nieces / nephews, aunts, uncles and many other family members and friends. We will continue to carry forth her legacy!!
