

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

*4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art
with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

While processing to the cemetery, please be sure to turn on your lights and hazards!

Lois Jean Williams

Lois "Sunshine" Jean Williams, 73, of Sedalia, MO, passed away peacefully at home on Friday, September 27, 2024. She was born on October 20, 1950, in Sedalia, the daughter of John J. and Mildred G. (Murray) Andrick, who preceded her in death.

Lois was a vibrant soul, always finding joy in her hobbies and interests. She was a devoted family member, as reflected in the extensive collection of photographs that adorned her home. She cherished her time outdoors, nurturing her yard and finding joy in nature. She was a lover of music and dancing and also enjoyed camping, her sons-in-law grilling, and shopping. Cooking brought her immense joy, and she lovingly prepared meals for many, including her colleagues at the bus barn, where she was a proud employee. A strong and proud woman, Lois will be deeply missed by all fortunate enough to know and love her.

She is survived by two daughters, LaCrissa Craig (Barry) of Jefferson City, MO and LaKisha Williams Eckhoff (Dan) of Sedalia; two sisters, Sharon McCollum (Mike) of Sedalia and Connie Andrick (Judy) of Logan, UT; four grandchildren who meant the world to her, Shaun Webb (Carleena) of Walton, KY, Candace Cunningham of Jefferson City, Adrianna Williams of Columbia and Dakota Williams of Sedalia; five great-grandchildren, Malachi Dupree, Jordan Dupree, Arabella Dupree, Kobe Dupree and Shaun Webb III.
