Obituary

Anthony Earl Jackson, affectionately known as "Big Whale," was born on June 7, 1973, in Selma, Alabama. He was the firstborn to Loretta Young and Leon Jackson. At an early age, he relocated to Cleveland, Ohio, where he attended Cleveland Metropolitan Schools, Vatterott College, and Ohio Diesel. Some of his hobbies included his love for fixing cars, sports, and outdoor activities.

Anthony was employed with Orlando Bakery for several years until he decided to pursue his passion for cars and began working as a tow truck operator. That still wasn't enough to fulfill his passion for fixing cars, so he started working as a traveling mechanic, often walking to his clients to repair their automobiles. He continued this work until he began employment at Eddie's Auto Repair, where he worked until he was no longer able to continue.

Anthony was preceded in death by his father, Leon Jackson. He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted mother, Loretta Young; his siblings, Cassandra Young, Larry Holmes, and TiEsha YoungJones (Renauld); the mother of his children, Teresa Williams; his children, Rataisha Dent, Tierra Dent, De'Anthony Jackson, Jayshun Jackson, Jacory Jackson, and Malik Jackson; nine grandchildren; three aunts; one uncle; special and supportive nephews, Marlon Burgess and Zhyelondre Young; supportive cousins, Jennifer and Charles Pullom; and a host of loving relatives and friends.

The Family*

REMEMBER ME

*Don't remember me with sadness, Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter, We've shared throughout the years.*

*Now I am contented. That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the ways, I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps Only half a step behind
So please don't be unhappy, Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you Each morning, noon, and night.*

TO HIS CHILDREN,

*Through tears I saw you sinking and watched you fade away; my heart was broken. I wanted you to stay. But when I say you sleeping so peacefully and free from pain how could I wish you back with me to suffer again.
Yes, it broke my heart to lose you, but you did not go alone, for part of me went with you, the day God called you home. I love you and miss You.*

– YOUR MOTHER
