

Verses for Velma from Randy

Philippians 4:12-13, New International Version

12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty.
I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want.

13 I can do all this through him who gives me strength.

Romans 8:28, New International Version

28 And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

These verses and poem were on a pad that apparently Velma had recently written on, or perhaps she found it and brought it closer to her.

Judge Ye Not

I dreamed death came the other night and Heaven's Gates swung wide.
With kindly grace an angel ushered me inside.
And there to my astonishment stood folks I'd known on Earth.
Some I'd judged and labeled as unfit or of little worth.
Indignant words rose to my lips but never were set free,
For on each face showed stunned surprise,
as no one expected me.

Romans 8:35-38, New International Version

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord

Matthew 6:6, New International Version

6 But when you pray, go into your room, close the door, and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

John 1:12, New International Version

12 Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—

John 10:28-29, New International Version

28 I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand. 29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand.

Jeremiah 1:5, New International Version

5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations."

Ephesians 2:10, New International Version

10 For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Jeremiah 18:6, New International Version

6 He said, "Can I not do with you, Israel, as this potter does?" declares the Lord. "Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, Israel.
