In 1990 she went on a blind date with David (Dave) Thompson, and a love story began. They were married on January 12, 1991, just celebrating their 35th Anniversary. They enjoyed riding their Honda Gold Wing all over the country. After Dave retired, they were able to travel to many places, including Alaska, in their RV. Jessie loved to sew before her eyesight became too bad. She was always making something fun for her family. She also loved gardening, baking, cooking, and spending time with her family. Jessie is survived by her husband Dave; children Paul Kridner, Mike (Barb) Kridner, Vickie (Kenny) Hall, Beth Piper, Kristi (Robin) Bohm, Troy (Natalie) Pearson and daughter-in-law Amy Jo Kridner; her stepdaughter Julie (Bryan) Zimmerman, 18 grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren and several great-great-grandchildren. Twenty-third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil: My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
