GOD looked around the garden,
And found an empty space.

He looked down upon the earth,

And saw your tired face. He put

His arms around you

And lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful

For He only takes the BEST.

He knew that you were weary,

and He knew that you were in pain.

He knew that you would never be well on earth again.

He saw the roads were getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.

So He closed your weary eyelids,
and whispered

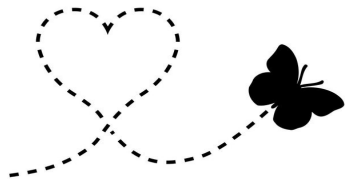

Peace be Shine.

Carol Jean Reil was born on July 13, 1949, in Milbank, SD. She was the daughter of Harold “Bud” Kasuske and Betty Jane (Schaffer) Kasuske. Carol grew up in Grant County, where she was baptized and confirmed into the Lutheran faith. She attended rural school and graduated from Corona High School with the Class of 1967. She was united in marriage with LaWayne Reil on October 5, 1968.

Carol and LaWayne started their lives together in the Twin Cities. She worked as a secretary for the University of Minnesota. The couple returned to South Dakota and settled in the Milbank area. They were blessed with a daughter, Jodie, in 1970, and a son, Christopher in 1973. In 1982, Carol and LaWayne went their separate ways. Carol then dedicated her life to raising her children.

Carol was an extremely hard-working woman, usually working two or three jobs at the same time. Over the years, she worked at a variety of places including Milbank Insurance Company, Lantern Inn, Milbank Cabinets, United Hardware/Hardware Hank, and Hartford Beach Resort. She had an independent spirit and a compassionate heart. She volunteered countless hours at Emanuel Lutheran Church, the Be Ye Doers, and the Orphan Grain Train. She always put others in front of herself and selflessly gave whenever she was able. Every Black Friday, Carol would shop and buy carts full of toys to be given to the Angel Tree at Christmas. Carol enjoyed being outdoors and tending to her yard and garden. If she was not outside, you could find her working on puzzles and watching her favorite tv shows. Most importantly, Carol adored her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.
