

Acknowledgements of Appreciation

To My Family

I have enjoyed my life on earth and every one of you.
My mind is clear, my body cleansed, and my soul is finally home.
Keep your spirits high, care for, support, and love each other.

Now that I am gone, release me and let me go.

I have more worthwhile things to accomplish you know.
You must not bind yourself to me with tears, just remember me and be thankful for our so many years.

So, grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
then let your grief be comforted by your love and trust.

It is only a while that we must part.

So, bless the memories in your mind and with your heart.

I will not be far away, for life goes on.

However, when you need me, just call and I will come.

Though you will not be able to see or touch me, I will be near.

If you listen with your heart and soul,

you will hear my love around you very soft and clear.

And then, when it is time for you to come the way alone, I will greet you with a loving and caring smile and say ... "Welcome Home".
