Homegoing Celebration of Nicholas Butler

Life Reflections

"To Everything There Is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven "

Ecclesiastes 3:1

A Time to Be Born

Nicholas Milton Butler, affectionately known as "Nick or Nicky" was born to the late Albert Butler and Corina Butler. He departed this life on February 15, 2023.

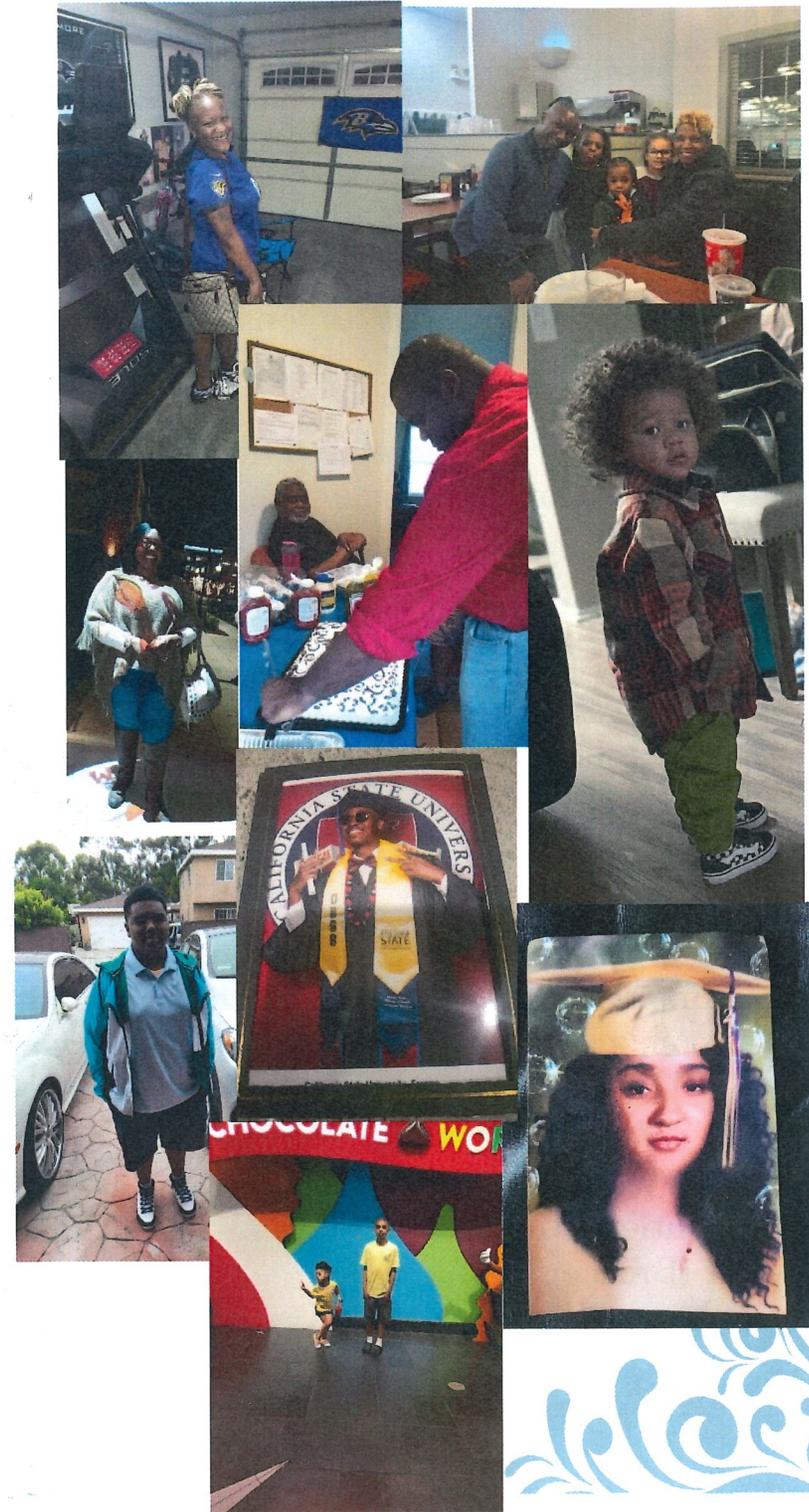

A Time to Grow

Nick was educated in the Baltimore City Public school system. After high school, Nick sought employment with the Maryland News Distributing Company where he was a dedicated and faithful employee for more than forty years until his retirement.

A Time to Love

Nick was married to Joyce Greene - Butler for ten years. Out of this union four wonderful children blossomed Elizabeth Denise Corley, Staccato R. Butler, Tyrock Milton Butler and Aaron Myron Butler.

Nicholas was later remarried to his second wife Ella Malloy-Butler. Within this union four wonderful children blossomed Kyle E. Bowman, Tammie R. Bowman, Jasoncruz' Marvin Butler.

Within these two marital unions, a loving blended family flourished.

A Time to Socialize

Nick was a fun loving, adventurous person, his love for driving is what led him to travel from state to state, meeting new people, basking in new scenery and enjoying good food for he loved to eat.

Nick also enjoyed collecting antique cars, comic books, watching old western TV shows, spending time with friends, family and especially loving on all of his grandchildren.

Nick loved people, anywhere he went, he always left a lasting impression on others. His infectious smile lit up a room and a lasting impression on everyone.

A Time to Say "Good - Bye"

Nicholas was preceded in death by his (Wife) Ella A. Malloy-Butler, (Mother) Corina Worrell (Father) Albert Butler (Brother's) James Worrell, William Charles, Mario Worrell (Sister) Donna Bazemore

Forever Our Granddaddy
MEASURE OF A PERSON

Not how did he die
But how did he live
Not what did he gain
But What did he give

Not what was his station
But had he a heart
And how did he play
His God given part

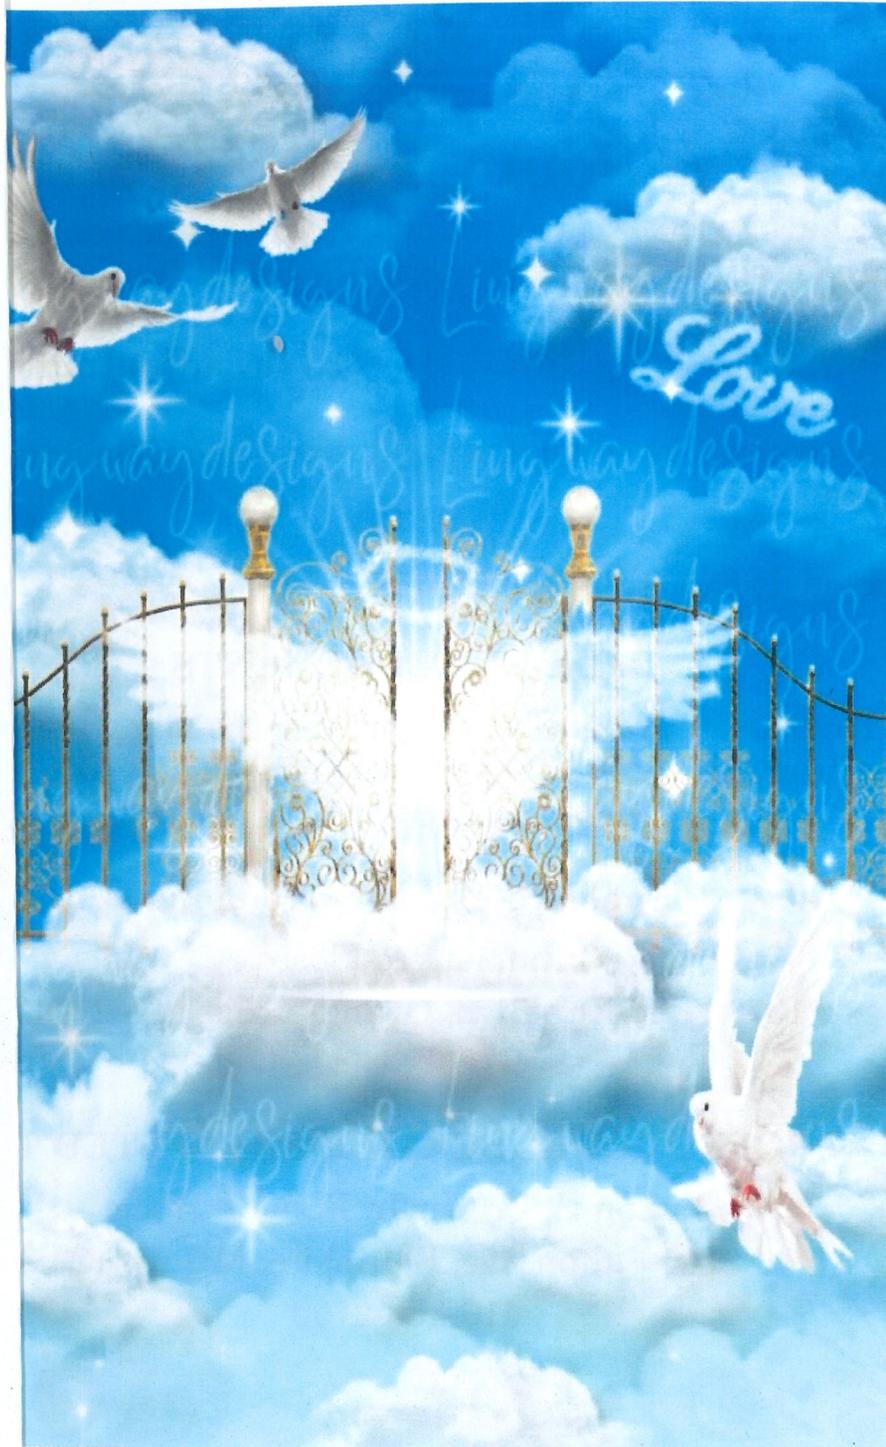

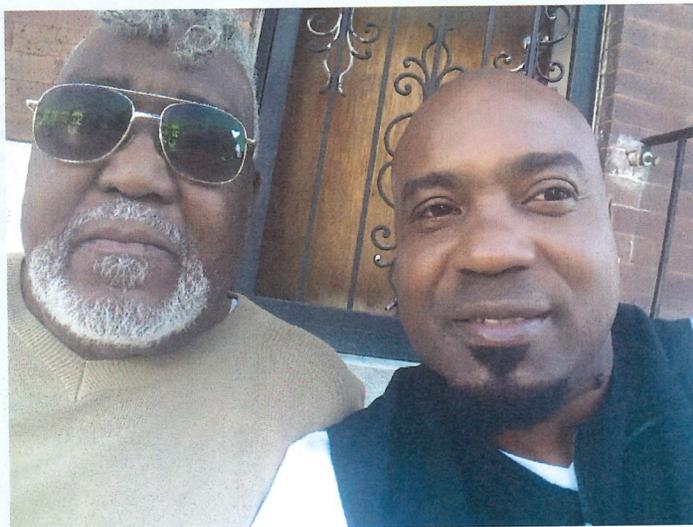

Was he ever ready
With a word of good cheer
To bring a smile
To banish a tear

Not what was his church
Nor what was his creed
But had he befriended
Those Really in need

Not what did the sketch
In the newspaper say
But how many were sorry
When he passed away

A Poem for Daddy

When your heart is heavy, and sorrows bend you low.
In the secret of his presence you will find the heavenly glow.

He will give new strength for everyday and all our sorrows share.

So weep not loved ones for him; He is in our Saviors care.

Lovingly Submitted The Family
