

As the sun rises every day... So shall it set... As we are all born into this world... God will one day call us home... It's gonna be hard as hell each day knowing that you are not here... Even to argue and us both be stubborn... Watching this sunset in between the stadium and having to know that you are gone and won't be there for just one more Bengals game... Thank you for everything... Every laugh... Every joke, Every memory... And even every tear running down your face... I love you, Bro... We all love you... And forever miss you... This isn't the end of your story... It's just a new beginning... Rest up... Until we see you again...

Always...

Your Brother (Tico Price)

Obituary

Marcus Ontwuan Borden, Sr. passed on June 29, 2022. He was born on June 21, 1982, to Marty J. Newman and Annie R. Borden.

Marcus attended Mt. Healthy High School. He worked as a cook in various nursing homes throughout the city of Cincinnati. He also worked as a technician for Spectrum Company.

Marcus was the strong arm in the family. He was the one who kept the family, his loved ones, and close friends leading a providing lifestyle.

Marcus was preceded in death by his grandparents: Annie Borden and Lindy Borden; brother Marquis Borden; and close friends: Malcolm Macafee, Mike Tarter, and Deon Kemper.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother Annie R. Borden; brothers: Marty, Nick, Dominick, and Rico Champion; and sister Jackie White.

Marcus was engaged to LaKida Spearmint and leaves behind 12 children: the oldest Tameisha, Janasia, Bridarius, Marcus, Jr., Markez, Jamaricus, Mariah, Maurice, Jamarion, Tori, Zariah, and youngest Laniyah. Marcus also left behind eight grandchildren: six granddaughters (one soon to be born) and two grandsons. He also leaves behind his best friend/mother of children Lakisha R. Payne and four wonderful women who were also the mothers of his children: Cassandra, Janara, Jada, and Tiffany.

Marcus was a loving fiancé, a loving father, a loving son, and most of all a loveable person in general.
