His love for community extended to participating in local events, such as the annual horse pulls as well as the annual tractor pull in Louisburg, where he showcased his skills in his younger years.

Babe married Mary Jane Dees on May 22, 1956, and together they enjoyed life, often going out dancing and cherishing moments that strengthened their bond. His commitment to family was evident in his relationships with his daughters: Betty, Linda, Brenda, and Margaret. Babe was blessed with eight grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren, who he loved dearly and brought so much joy into his life.

He is survived by daughters, Betty Gress, Linda (Carl) Clinton, Brenda (Greg) Gibson, and Margaret (Mike) Martin, eight grandchildren: Amanda Reimal, Jessie Clinton Caceres, Leslie Foster, Austin Clinton, Rockie Littleton, Stephanie Gibson, Micala Rawlins, and Melia Martin.
