FAREWELL DEAR MOTHER

Somewhere in our hearts beneath all our grief and pain, Is a smile we still wear, at the sound of your dear name. The precious word is 'MOTHER', she was our world you see, But now our heart is breaking cause she's no longer here with us God chose her for His angel to watch us from above, To guide us and advise us and know that we still loved. The day she had to leave us when her life on earth was through, God had better plans for her, for this, I surely knew. When we think of her kind heart and all those loving years, may memories surround us, and we can't hold back the tears. She truly was our best friend, someone we could confide in, She always had a tender touch and a warm and gentle grin. We want to thank you Mother for teaching us so well, And though the time has come that we must bid you this farewell. well, remember all you've taught us and make you proud you'll see. Thank you, our Dear Mother, for all the love you showed us. Although you've left this earth and now you've taken flight. I Wanted to Grow Old with You. I wanted to grow old with you, but fate had other plans. I vowed to love you until death as we stood holding hands. We pledged to be together until our lives were through. I thought we'd spend the golden years ahead, just me and you. I know you'd be here if you could, you tried so hard to live. You struggled to rise every day, gave all you had to give. If love alone could save you, you'd still be here with me. If love alone could bring you back, how lovely life would be. But no one lives forever, so I go on alone. I'm finding my "new normal," attempting to move on. The silence now is deafening, the empty bed brings tears I dream of you most every night; I hope I will for years. I look for signs that you're around, perhaps I've gone insane But I miss you so desperately, I'll grasp at anything. Our memories are all I have; I guess they'll have to do. I'm thankful for the years we had; so grateful I found you. I know that I am fortunate, that some will never know A love like ours, the joy we shared, before you had to go. I miss your touch, your gentleness, your laughter, and your care. And now the pain at what I've lost is more than I can bear. You said, "Grow old along with me," You said the best was yet to be. We vowed til death that we'd be true I wanted to grow old with you.

I NEVER LEFT YOU

I watch you every day
I am always very near
I know deep in your heart
You realize I am here
I watch you while you sleep
In your bed at home
I hear you when you speak to me
When you are on your own
You cannot understand the reason why I have gone
But I will never leave you
I am there to keep you strong
Talk to me I hear you
Though you may not see
We share an unbroken bond
That will always be
Death won't keep us apart
For our love is forever
Just remember me in your heart
And one day we will be together
Live your life and live it full
Don't waste a single day
Remember I am always with you
Every step of the way
