THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

Jessie

CHARLES SPIVEY

Jessie Charles Spivey was born on June 1, 1942, to the proud parents, Ulis Spivey and Era Maud Cager in Edinburg, Mississippi. He was the youngest of the four Spivey children.

Jessie completed his primary education in Chicago, Illinois, attending and graduating from Crane High School before enrolling in Crane Junior College.

In 1983 Jessie married his long-time sweetheart Sandra in Chicago Illinois. Together as newlyweds they relocated to Massachusetts where he continued his career at Lucent Technology, holding several positions before deciding to relocate to Las Vegas, Nevada in 2003.

Jessie had very strong work ethics, so it wasn't long before he landed a job as security for We Serve. He was forever thankful to Pastor Giddens for helping him land that job. In 2007 Jessie joined Mountain Top Faith Church where he also worked security until his health forced him to retire.

He enjoyed watching sports and debating statistics. Jessie would recall some of the greatest plays ever made in the history of White Sox baseball. Jessie was a huge Bulls basketball fan and let's not forget the infamous Chicago Bears. Although he moved to Nevada, he stayed loyal to all the Chi-town professional sports teams.

Jessie enjoyed his life and loved to have fun with the family and friends whenever possible no matter where he had to go.

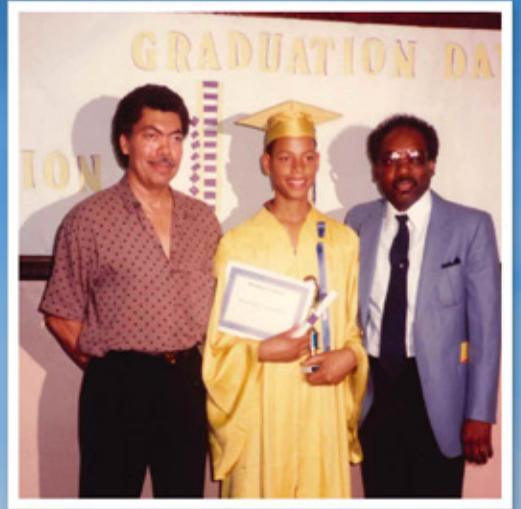

Jessie's sunset on May 7th when his Heavenly father called him home. He was preceded in death by his parents, three siblings and two daughters. He leaves to cherish his heartfelt memories, his loving wife Sandra Spivey, his only son Kavin Spivey and his beloved sister Christine Banks and a host of cousins, extended family and friends.

A LETTER TO MY HUSBAND.

My Dearest Jesse,

It still feels strange writing this letter, knowing you won't read it in the flesh.

Forty-one years of life together, of laughter, of traveling, of support, of partnership. Because you weren't just my husband, you were my partner, in every sense of the word. You stood by me through every chapter, every twist in the road. Whether I was chasing a new dream, like getting my cosmetology and Barber license or finishing Real estate school, you encouraged me through all of my licensing endeavors. Jesse, you were always the one saying, "Go for it, "You've got this." You can cry about it, but then what's next?" You made me believe in myself.

I miss your passion for sports—how you could explain plays like a coach or ramble off stats of players from every Chicago sports team. I miss dancing with you, anywhere the music moved us. And how you'd always know exactly where we were on a map. You always had the best sense of direction!

The house is quieter now. My world feels a little dimmer. But I still hear you. I hear you when I doubt myself. I hear you when I'm deciding whether to take the next step or stay put. And I still feel your gentle encouragement to keep going.

Thank you, Jesse—for the love, the laughs, the dances, and for believing in me even when I didn't believe in myself. You were, and always will be, my partner.

I love you. I miss you.

And I carry you with me, always.

Sandra

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Family of Jessie Charles Spivey would like to express their sincere appreciation, and gratitude for all prayers and acts of kindness received during this very difficult time. Thanks to all who called, sent a card, said a prayer, and every expression of care and concern you may have given. We thank you.
