

FROM YOUR WIFE, MARGARET

Jason, my love story with you started long before we built this beautiful family. I still remember being in high school when you gave me that first mixed CD. That simple gift became the beginning of a lifetime of memories. Even back then, you showed me love in your own special way.

Fifteen years together. Through every season—the good, the difficult, the laughter, and the tears—we chose each other. And I would choose you again.

I'm going to miss your company the most. The laughing. The joking. Playing games together. Our trips to Orlando and traveling to Gainesville. The family gatherings. Even the unforgettable moments that became our stories and made our life ours.

I will miss the everyday things people sometimes take for granted. I will miss my best friend.

Thank you for loving me. Thank you for loving our children. Thank you for giving us memories that death can never take away.

*Jason, your love did not leave when you did. It remains in every song we hear, every game we watch, every road we travel, every laugh we share, and every memory we hold close. Until we meet again...
I LOVE YOU FOREVER.
YOUR WIFE, MARGARET*

TO OUR DADDY FROM MILA:

Daddy, I will always be your little girl—your “Daddy’s Baby.” I will forever remember our mornings together: every ride to school, every conversation, every laugh, and every moment we shared before the day even started.

*Those car rides were more than just trips to school; they were our special time. Thank you for loving me, protecting me, and showing me what a father’s love looks like. I will carry you with me forever.
LOVE, MILA*

FROM JOSH AND JEREMIAH

Dad, thank you for always showing up. Thank you for every practice, every game, every conversation, and every lesson. You weren’t just watching us play sports—you were investing in us.

We will never forget looking over and seeing you there, supporting us on the football field.

*We will miss talking sports with you, hearing your advice, and having those honest conversations only you could give. You taught us to stay humble, work hard, and become good young men. Your lessons and love will live through us every day.
- LOVE, JOSH & JEREMIAH*

THE FAMILY’S MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

“The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” — Psalm 34:18

During this season of sorrow, our family has felt God’s comfort through the love, prayers, and kindness of each of you. Your compassion has been a reminder that we are not walking through this difficult journey alone.

Thank you for every prayer spoken over our family, every meal prepared, every hug given, every story shared, and every act of kindness—seen and unseen. Your love has helped carry us through moments when we did not have the strength to stand on our own.

*With Sincere Gratitude,
The Family*

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Service of your loved one. Our fervent hope is that all measures of assistance rendered to your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.

Life Story

JASON BYRON HILL

April 30, 1985 – May 31, 2026

~ A Man of Heart, Honor, and Unforgettable Legacy ~

Born on April 30, 1985, in Gainesville, Florida, JASON BYRON HILL was the cherished son of Thomas Hill, Sr. and Josephine Benford Hill. From his earliest days, Jason carried a gentle strength, a joyful spirit, and a heart rooted in love, family, and faith.

JASON was a devoted husband, loving father, caring son, loyal brother, and faithful friend. For more than fifteen years, he shared a beautiful life with his beloved wife, Margaret Rembert-Hill. Together, they built a home filled with warmth, laughter, and unwavering devotion. He took immense pride in his children—Joshua Rembert-Hill, Jeremiah Hill, and Mila Hill—who were among his greatest joys and accomplishments.

A man of strong work ethic and determination, JASON dedicated nearly a decade of service to Syntech. He began his career on July 25, 2016, as a Warehouse Laborer and quickly distinguished himself through diligence, professionalism, and a commitment to excellence. His dedication earned him two promotions, and he completed training for his new role as a Sales Order Processing Specialist, a position he was set to begin in the very week God called him home. Though he never had the chance to step into that role, his achievement stands as a testament to his drive, growth, and excellence. In 2020, JASON received the prestigious Star of Excellence Award, honoring his character, leadership, and unwavering commitment.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, JASON possessed a deep passion for music. Whether serving as a DJ, playing the keyboard, or sharing his favorite songs with those around him, music was one of the ways he connected with others and expressed his joyful spirit. His love for music brought people together and created lasting memories for family and friends alike.

JASON treasured spending quality time with his loved ones. From family movie nights to special celebrations and everyday moments, he understood the importance of creating memories and strengthening bonds. His infectious smile, kind heart, and uplifting presence made everyone around him feel valued and appreciated.

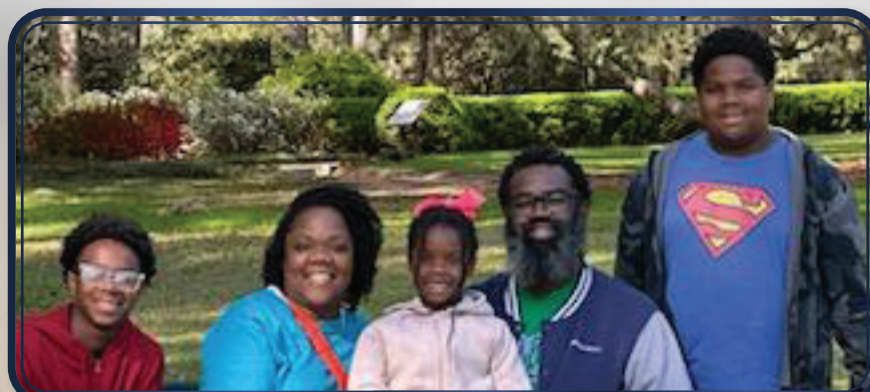

“Those we love never truly leave us. They live on in every memory, every lesson, and every moment of love they leave behind.”

On Sunday, May 31, 2026, JASON peacefully transitioned from labor to reward, leaving behind a legacy of love, dedication, and cherished memories.

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife, Margaret Rembert-Hill; his beloved children, Joshua Rembert-Hill, Jeremiah Hill, and Mila Hill; his mother, Josephine Hill; his brother, Adrian McCoy (Melody); his Godparents, Reverend Thomas and Thelma Wilborn; along with a host of in-laws, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, coworkers, and friends who were blessed to know and love him.

He was preceded in death by his father, Thomas Hill, Sr., and his brothers, Thomas Hill, Jr. and Carlos Hill.

Though JASON'S earthly journey has ended, the love he shared, the lives he touched, and the memories he created will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew him. His legacy reminds us that a life measured by love, service, and devotion is truly a life well lived.
