THOMAS CHARLES EWELL
"TC"

JUNE 20, 1986 – JUNE 7, 2024

Obituary

Thomas Charles Ewell, "TC," 37, of Coatesville, PA, died suddenly on June 7, 2024. Born on June 20, 1986, in Long Beach, California, Thomas was the son of Dee Ann Ewell and the late Thomas Aguilar.

Thomas attended Woodrow Wilson High School in California, where he was a proud member of the school's football team. He carried his passion for the sport throughout his life becoming a die-hard Pittsburgh Steelers fan. His love for the outdoors was a defining aspect of his character; he spent countless weekends fishing, hiking, swimming, and rock wall climbing with his children. Whether it was riding road bikes or taking the kids to Urban Air, Thomas loved creating special moments with his kids.

Music was another important part of Thomas's life. He had a particular fondness for R&B and rap, with Kevin Gates' "Bread Winner" being one of his all-time favorites. Thomas was a devoted family man whose greatest joy in life was his children. His loyalty and dedication were not only evident in his role as a father but also in his relationships with friends and family.

Thomas is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Ewell; three children, whom he adored more than anything in the world, Kennedy, Brayden, and Noah; his mother, Dee Ann Ewell; sister, Crystal, who he called Jethro; and a host of relatives and friends.

Thomas's spirit and the memories he created will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

The Family

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone,
For a part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.
