MY BROTHER, MY FOREVER FRIEND
*You were more than my brother
You were a piece of our heart,
A steady presence in our life,
A love that will never depart.
Though your journey ended sooner
Than any of us could bear,
Your voice still echoes in our memories,
And we feel your spirit everywhere.
We'll remember your smile,
Your strength, your laughter, your way.
Those precious moments we shared
Will never fade away.
God saw your weary spirit
And gently called you home.
Now you're resting in His perfect peace,
Never again to walk alone.
The tears we cry are born of love,
Not only of goodbye.
For we know that one sweet day
we'll meet again,
Beneath Heaven's endless sky.
Until that glorious morning,
We'll carry you with us each day.
In every prayer, every heartbeat,
Your memory will forever stay.
Sleep peacefully, my dear brother.
Your race is won, your crown is yours.
Though our hearts are broken here on earth,
Heaven has opened its doors.
Together again someday, our brother.
Until then, we will love you always.*
