Precious Memories

Deddy,

We were never just your sons—
we were your boys,
your pride, your joy, the ones you
held close no matter how tall we grew.
We remember your laughter before
we remember your words, your presence
before we understood your strength.
You showed us love in the way you
showed up—
every time, without fail.
You were our first hero,
our safe place,
the one who knew us without explanation.
And even now,
we still feel you—
in the things you taught us,
in the men we've become,
in the love we carry forward.
We miss you more than words can hold,
but we thank God we were yours.

Your Sons

Deddy,

We were your girls—
and you made sure we knew it every single day.
You loved us with a tenderness
that made us feel safe,
and a strength
that taught us how to stand on our own.
In your eyes, we were always enough—
always beautiful, always worthy, always yours.
You were our protector,
our teacher,
our quiet place in a loud world.
And even now,
we hear your voice guiding us,
feel your love covering us,
see your strength living in us.
Though our hearts ache without you,
we are forever grateful
that God chose you to be our father.
We will carry your love, your lessons,
and your legacy with us—
always your daughters.

Love, Your daughters

James,

We shared a lifetime of memories
that I will forever hold close.
You were my protector, my companion,
and always my brother.
Though my heart aches without you,
I am grateful for every moment we shared.
Rest well!

Your sister, DK

Our Brother
They called you Tight Rope—
steady, strong, and sure.
You walked life with balance,
never falling, always enduring.
Through every high and every low,
you held your ground with grace.
More than a brother—
you were strength we could
not replace.
We'll carry your name,
your spirit, your stride—
forever walking with Tight Rope by our side.

Love, Mickey & Duane
