“God Saw You Getting Tired”

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be so He put His arms around you and whispered, “Come to Me.”

With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away
and although we love you dearly
we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

In Appreciation

The family of the late Leroy Jones gratefully acknowledge the many acts of kindness and other warm expressions of sympathy extended to them during the passing of their loved one. May God continue to richly bless each one of you.

Life Reflections

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Leroy Jones, a beloved father, brother, and friend, who departed this life on Thursday, April 3, 2025, at the age of 71. Leroy lived in Greenville, South Carolina for a number of years before returning home to Camden, South Carolina, where he was born on March 30, 1954.

Leroy was educated in the public schools of Kershaw County, where he developed a passion for learning and a strong work ethic that would guide him throughout his life. He pursued a career as an electrician, a profession he excelled in and dedicated himself to for many years. He worked at Duke, like his father, in his early years. He last worked for IBW union where he retired from. Leroy loved to garden and fish. His dying request was to go fishing so that he could catch some crappies. When he would garden, he would generously give what he grew to those in the community.

A devout member of White Oak Baptist Church, Leroy found great joy and purpose in his faith and community service. He was known for his warm smile, generous spirit, and unwavering commitment to helping others. His presence will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Leroy is survived by his loving children, Nikki Jones and Shane Jones, who were the pride and joy of his life. He also leaves behind his brother, Howard Jones, along with a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins who will cherish his memory.

Leroy was preceded in death by his parents, Deacon Emauel Jones, Jr and Mae Belle Stover Jones; siblings, Joann Jones Roundtree, Emanuel Jones, III, and Vanessa Frances.
