

"Life is not measured by the number of breaths you take, but by the moments that take our breath away."
- Maya Angelou

Memoirs of GMoney

When we think of GMoney, we don't just think of a name – we think of a presence.

GMoney was more than what he wore, though he wore it well. Always sharp, always polished, always stepping out like the world was his runway. But the real style of GMoney wasn't stitched in fabric – it was stitched in his character.

He valued family above all. His children were his pride and joy, his greatest accomplishment, his living legacy. Everything he did carried their names in his heart. He believed in showing up, standing tall, and loving fully. He made sure his family felt protected, provided for, and most importantly – cherished.

Affectionately known as GMoney, he carried strength with gentleness. He was a quiet warrior – overcoming life's challenges with dignity, never complaining, never folding under pressure. Whatever he faced, he faced it with faith. Whatever he endured, he endured it with love.

He had a laughter that filled rooms and a spirit that lifted burdens. His joy was contagious. His humor was healing. Being around him meant you were going to smile, whether you planned to or not.

He could fix almost anything with his hands – but what truly set him apart was how he fixed things with his heart. He mended relationships. He restored hope. He reminded people of their worth simply by the way he treated them.

GMoney loved the Lord and lived his life reflecting Christ's love – steady, patient, and real. His faith wasn't loud, but it was firm. It guided his steps and shaped the man we all knew and loved.

Though we will miss his voice, his walk, and that unmistakable presence, GMoney's legacy lives on. It lives in his children. It lives in his family. It lives in every lesson he taught, every laugh he shared, and every life he touched.

GMoney was not just a nickname.

*It was a movement of style.
A statement of strength.
A symbol of love.*

And his memory will forever remain tailored in dignity and wrapped in grace.

In moments of sorrow we are reminded of God's comforting promise, Psalms 46:10; "Be still and know that I am God." Even in our grief, we trust in the sovereignty of the Lord and find peace in his presence.

Pallbearers

Gary Miller Jr.	Jayden Bryant
Gevonte' Miller	Prentess Flanagan Jr.
Ge' Shawn Miller	Tyrone J. Miller

Flower Bearers

Family & Friends

Acknowledgements

With Heartfelt gratitude, the family sincerely thanks you for your prayers, love, and support during our time of bereavement. Your kindness has been a source of comfort and strength. As James 2:14 -26 reminds us, faith is made alive through deeds. Your acts of love and care have been a living testament to the truth, and we are deeply grateful for all who have honored Gary Sr.'s memory.

Known for Excellence. Trusted for Value.

Celebrating THE LIFE OF

Gary Miller Sr.

November 24, 1958 - January 30, 2026

February 21, 2026

Visitation: 10:00 a.m. - Funeral Service: 11:00 a.m.

Walker - Walnut Hills
2625 Gilbert Avenue | Cincinnati, Ohio 45206
Pastor Irvin C. Wallace, Officiating

Obituary

With loving hearts and cherished memories, we celebrate the life of a devoted father, beloved brother, supportive husband and faithful servant of Christ, Gary Miller Sr., who was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on November 24, 1958, to Ernest Miller and Arvella Taylor (Miller) who preceded him in death along with his stepbrother, Robert "Bobby" Harrison.

Gary Sr. departed this life on Friday January 30, 2026, and is survived by his wife, Rachel (Craig Pointer) Miller. Known far and wide as the best-dressed man in any room, Gary Sr. carried himself with confidence and style. Whether stepping out in a sharp suit or cruising in one of his beloved Cadillac cars, he made a statement without saying a word. He loved music and filled every room with rhythm, joy, and laughter. A true jokester, he had a gift for lifting spirits and bringing smiles wherever he went.

His life reflected Proverbs 17:22, "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine." Gary Sr. impacted the lives of so many people in ways both big and small. His love and laughter were so infectious that anyone who encountered him left feeling lighter and uplifted. He had a way of making people feel seen, valued, and loved. Whether through a joke, a helping hand, wise advice, or simply his presence, he left a lasting imprint on every heart he touched. The memories he created will forever live on through the stories shared, the laughter remembered, and the love carried forward by those blessed to know him.

Gary Sr., legacy lives on through his son Gary Miller Jr., father of his grandsons Gevonte Miller, GeShaun Miller, his daughter LaKesha (Miller) Bryant, mother of his grandson Jayden Bryant; two step-children Kiyana Lattimore and Craig Lattimore. Gary Sr.'s children and grandchildren were the absolute joy of his life. He poured his love, wisdom, and strength into them, leading by example and reminding them daily how deeply they were loved. As it is written in Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." He lived this scripture through his guidance, protection, and unwavering presence.

Gary Sr. was born one of five children, and he shared a special bond with his siblings, whom he honored throughout his life. He leaves behind three loving sisters Marilyn Miller, Pamela (Johnson) Bedford, Denise Miller, one devoted brother Eric Miller; stepbrother Arthur Harrison, and a host of step-grandchildren, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends who will forever treasure his laughter, wisdom, and steadfast love.

Gary Sr. was a generous gentleman always willing to help, always ready to give, and always present when someone was in need. Above all, he dedicated his life to Christ. His faith guided his steps and shaped the way he loved others. He embraced everyone with the love of Christ—freely.

Though he is no longer with us in body, his legacy of love, laughter, faith, and family will continue to shine brightly in the lives of all who knew him. Let us find comfort in the assurance of 2 Timothy 4:7: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

Gary Miller Sr. will be deeply missed, forever loved, and always remembered.

A Gift of Love

Heaven is a G thing—
there's a golden G on the front of the gates.
I am completely healed, whole, and filled with joy,
reunited at last with my beloved mother, Arvella.
Her hand in mine, our laughter united in unison,
it's more beautiful than I ever imagined.
We are together again, perfectly at peace, and full of love.
I watch over you with joy and love,
smiling at the memories we shared,
laughing at the little things,
and feeling the happiness of being whole and together.
Carry forward what I have taught you:
walk with dignity, love without hesitation,
face life's challenges with courage,
and live each day with faith, laughter, and joy.
Celebrate life, love deeply, laugh often,
keep the music bumping,
and know that my spirit surrounds you always.
Until we meet again,
I am with you...
in every step, every prayer, every heartbeat.

Order of Service

Musical Prelude	I'll be Missing You Smooth Jazz All Stars
Parting View	The Family The Boss-James Brown
Prayer & Scripture	Pastor Irvin C. Wallace Life and Favor-John P. Kee
Reading	Memoirs of GMoney
Selection	Because of Who You Are -Vicki Yohe
Acknowledgements	Pastor Irvin C. Wallace
Special Tribute	Tailored Strength
Obituary	Please Read Silently
Selection	Otherside -Beyonce'
Eulogy	Pastor Irvin C. Wallace
Benediction	Pastor Irvin C. Wallace
Recessional	Clergy, Pallbearers, Family and Friends Walk-Hulvey & Lecrae Let 'Em Know- TI

Final Resting Place

Spring Grove Cemetery
4521 Spring Grove Avenue - Cincinnati, Ohio 45232