

Orlean Mae Lardy, born on April 14, 1935, in Webster, SD, the daughter of Peter and Inga (Kleven) Monson. She spent her childhood on the family farm in Day County and graduated from Roslyn High School in 1953. Continuing her education at Huron College, she earned a one-year teaching certificate in 1954, and began her career teaching grade school in various Day County schools.

On October 5, 1957, Orlean married Donald Francis Lardy in Webster, SD. The couple settled in Milbank, SD. She dedicated herself to raising their children: Pam, Scott, Kevin, and Dale. Orlean took on roles at Mercantile Company, Milbank Insurance, and finally retiring from Grant-Roberts Rural Water in 1997. Orlean was a long-time member of the American Lutheran Church in Milbank, and later joined Living Word Lutheran Church. She found joy in baking, cooking, traveling, watching TV game shows, and spending time with her family. She cherished her home and the simple pleasures of being a homemaker.

She is survived by her children: Pam (Dave) Aman of Altoona, WI; Scott (Angela) Lardy of Garretson, SD; Kevin (Anita) of Sheldon, IA; and Dale Lardy of Milbank, SD; her 11 grandchildren: Casey Aman; Shannon (Jeremy) Thornsberry; Ryan Aman; Nicole (Daniel) Mar; Jack Lardy, Madden Lardy, and Clay Lardy; Zachary (Sydney) Lardy; Sarah (Jon) Eveland; Josh Lardy; and Jordon (Ann) Konda; as well as her eight great-grandchildren: Sawyer and Cameron Thornsberry; Holland, Beckham, and Winstyn Mar; Oliver Lardy; Warren Eveland; and Bennett Konda.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Peter and Inga Monson; her husband, Donald; and three brothers: Percival Monson, Elwood Monson, and Roger Monson.

Romans 8:35-39

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written, For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
