Although this time has been tumultuous, our pain has been eased by the outpour of love from our friends, family and the community. Denzel has left us with endless memories in his 22 years to last us all a lifetime. We are thankful to have been able to share Denzel with you, and thank you for your continuous support, prayers, and condolences.

With Love,
The Family

DENZEL AMEER WILSON

Denzel Ameer Wilson, jovially known as "Hollywood," went home to be with the Lord suddenly, on Monday February 16, 2015. Born in Coatesville, Pa.; he was the son of LaMonte Wilson and Carletta Y. London.

A 2011 graduate of the Coatesville Area School District, Denzel enjoyed sports and loved school and thoroughly enjoyed the spotlight, entertaining became natural. He had a strong passion for music, especially the work of Michael Jackson, the Temptations (namely David Ruffin), as well as the Five Heartbeats. Be it singing or a comedic performance, all who had the opportunity to witness his talents were left with a lasting impression. He assured you laughter and good times. Family members had to also be on guard, he could impersonate anybody at the drop of a dime.

Denzel was baptized at the tender age of 11, by Apostle Percy Bland, receiving Christ as his personal savior.

Left to cherish fond memories of Denzel in addition to his parents are his step-mother Catrina Wilson, the loves of his life Kriscel Marrero and their daughter Jiselle of Christiana, and siblings his twin brother Dominique Wilson of Thorndale; LaMonte Wilson Jr., Angel Williams and her husband Kae, LaMar Wilson, JaMyl Wilson, JaMal Wilson, LaMonika Wilson, RaShced Wilson, Robert "Shaka" Williams, Nandi Williams, Phoenicia Williams, DeJon Hall, Steisha Hall, Nakai Hall, Bryson Bell-St. John, Khalil Brewer, and Patrick Brewer. Also surviving are his paternal grandmother Barbara Wilson Stelly, his maternal grandfather Carl London (Judy), his maternal grandmother Mildred Bell, great-grandmother Gertrude "Sis" Ford, the Marrero Family, close friend and mentor Yomi Adesubokan and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunt and uncles.

Denzel was predeceased in death by his brother LaVoy Wilson.
