Life Story of Dwane McKinney

Dwane Edwin McKinney was born on September 21, 1959 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Julius and Lillian Mckinney who preceded him in death. On June 13, 2021 Wane as he was affectionately known departed this life. No more pain, no more suffering, just peace!

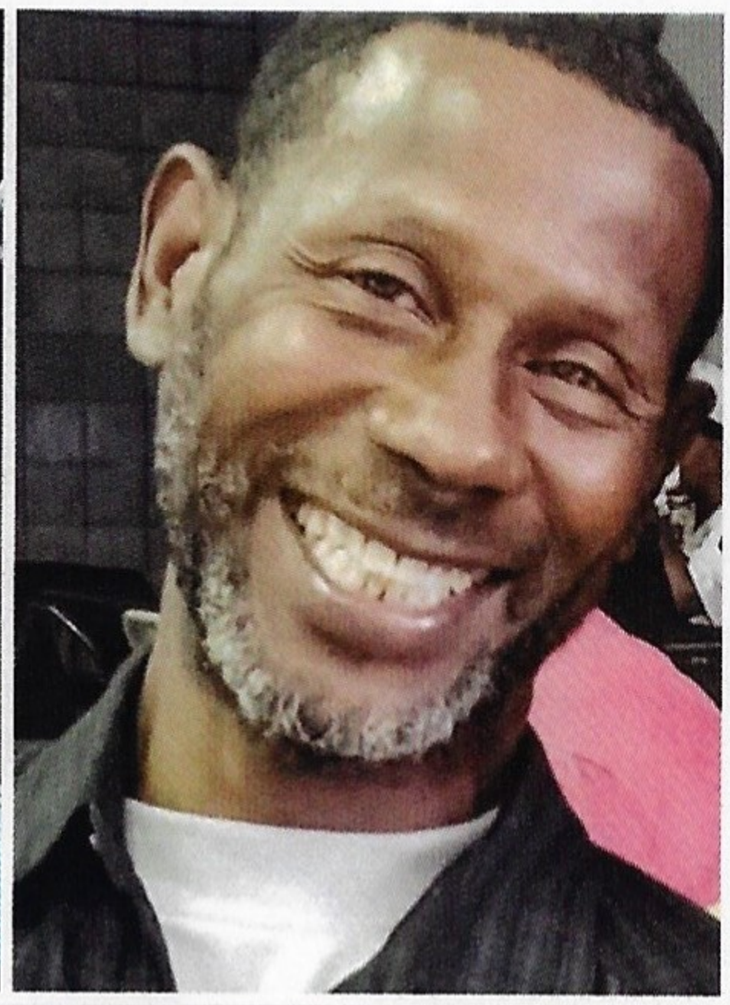

Wane was educated in the Philadelphia School System and after which he began his military career. Serving in both the Navy for 4 yrs. and 8 years in the U.S Marines. After serving his country, he began working as a Pipe Fitter for some time.

Wane loved driving fast cars and motorcycles with the Camaro being his favorite car. Wane also loved to listen to music while enjoying a nice cold beer. Wane loved making jokes and visiting his family. Wane could always be found around 32nd and Diamond Streets AKA his hood and stomping grounds or hanging out with his Best Friend Michael Harris. He was a momma's boy and could do no wrong according to Gail. Wane the Stain was full of life until God chose otherwise.

Wayne leaves to cherish his memory, Rachel Creer, two brothers Ronald and Darryl, three sisters Julia, Stacey (who preceded him in death), Sandra and a host of other relatives and friends who miss him dearly.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

In Appreciation

We, the family of Dwane E. Mckinney, would like to take this opportunity to express our heartfelt thanks and gratitude during our time of bereavement for the many acts of love,prayers, and expressions of love that was shown to us. May God continue to bless and keep each of you in His care.
