The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
that God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly;
in death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home
You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a flower piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you said the kindest words, that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much -
Whatever the part.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

JoAnn Daughtry, of Philadelphia, passed away peacefully on July 31, 2024 at the age of 84. Born on November 23, 1939 to Stephen and Mildred Daughtry, JoAnn was a beloved daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend.

JoAnn, affectionately known as Nanny, grew up in Philadelphia alongside her siblings Edward (Jerry), Getrude (Trudy), Delores (Dee) and Stephen (Steve). A proud graduate of Kensington School for Girls in 1957, she dedicated 29 years of her life to the Philadelphia Police Garage before retiring in 1996. During her time with PPG, she actively served as a shop Stewart union representative that afforded her numerous opportunities to travel. She later served at the William Penn Foundation from 1998 to 2000.

A devoted member of Mediator Lutheran Church for over 50 years, JoAnn's faith was an integral part of her life. She cherished quality time with her family, loved to travel, enjoyed epic biblical movies, westerns and mystery television series, delighted in good food, and frequently visited the casino. Her passion for Motown music brought joy to her life and those around her.

JoAnn is survived by her children, Andrea Lorain Daughtry and Darren Martin Daughtry; her daughter-in-love Patricia; her granddaughters, Torahna and Jasmine; Torahna's husband, Akil, and their children, Crimsyn, Elias, Emanuel, and Israel; Jasmine's husband, Anthony, and their children, Blake and Emerie; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, friends, and neighbors who will remember her warmth, kindness, and the countless memories.

JoAnn will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Lovingly submitted,

The Family
