Celebrating the Life of

Beverly Ann Camp

Heaven Awaits

It's a comfort to know what lies ahead at the end of this life we've been given and to know the one who waits for us there and the new home that awaits in Heaven.

We can't always control these things on Earth sometimes it's out of our hands we may not agree with how things turn out But God always has bigger plans.

We hang on to our loved ones as long as we can and it's hard to let go when they're gone sometimes they say, it was for the best because they suffered and endured for so long.

There will come a day when we all understand and we all take our last breath then we'll all be living high and wide because eternal life has no death.

I'm thankful that Heaven awaits for those of us that trust and believe and the gift of salvation, through Jesus Christ the greatest gift you'll ever receive.
