Message of Hope

This is a message
Not just any message
But a message of hope
I hope my passing doesn't bring you pain,
That it brings you joy, for an angel you have gained
I pray my passing doesn't bring you sorrow, trust me this will be easier tomorrow
When the sun is smiling down on your face,
It's me giving you morning grace
When the wind is blowing through the air
It's a gentle reminder that I'm right here, though you think I'm miles away
I hope you know my body was called home, but my soul still lives on inside you
Throughout the day, it will be me who guides you That little voice inside your head telling you that Daddy would want you to be strong,
Even though God decided to call me home
I hope you know how much I loved you all
I hope that you'll be strong and stand tall
I hope you know I fought a good fight,
Then God decided to call me to the light.

Tianna Edwards

Journey of Fruitful Life

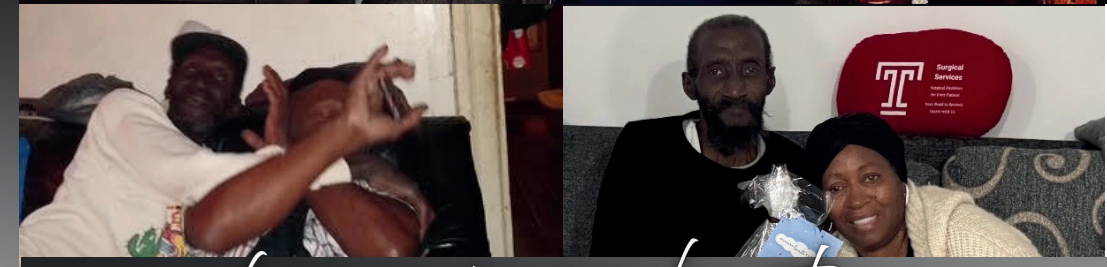

Donnie Murchison was born on October 15, 1955, in Philadelphia, PA to Edna Robinson-Murchison and Mackie Murchison. Donnie passed on Friday, April 17, 2026 at Kindred Hospital in Philadelphia, PA.

Donnie received his education and graduated from the Philadelphia public school system. From a young age, Donnie possessed a wonderful sense of humor that could brighten any room and bring a smile to everyone he met. He began his career working alongside his late uncle, Willie James, as a carpenter. Overtime, he became a well-respected contractor throughout Philadelphia, collaborating with many individuals and companies. Donnie took great pride in teaching his younger siblings the value of hard work and personally trained them in the craft of carpentry. In later years, he met Sharon Green and from their union, one daughter was born: Melissa Murchison.

Donnie was preceded in death by his parents, Edna and Mackie Murchison his brother, Robert Murchison, and his sisters, Blondele Murchison and Corrine Nixon.

Donnie leaves to cherish his precious memory his devoted daughter, Melissa Murchison, his grandson, Branden Davis, his brothers, Willie, Curtis, J.C., and Jimmy, and his sisters, Ruby, Harriett, Curtisrine and Renee. He also leaves to mourn his passing aunt, Dorothy, his sister-in-law, Shelly Clark, his brother-in-law, Tyrone Craig, his significant other, Sandra Henderson, his step children, Shamika and Vanika Henderson; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and many dear friends.
