

FLY LIKE AN EAGLE

Fly like and Eagle,
That you are,
Cause you sure weren't no beetle,
Fly like an Eagle,
That you are,
Cause we're sure gonna miss
your jiggle,(chop it up)
Fly like an Eagle,
That you are,
But just promise not to go too far
Fly like an Eagle
That you are
I can see you up in heaven having a ball,
Fly like an Eagle,
that your are,

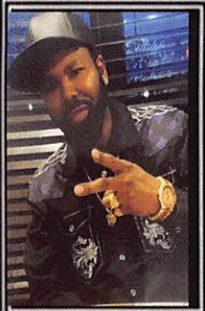

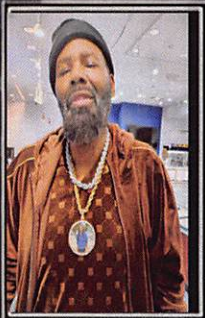

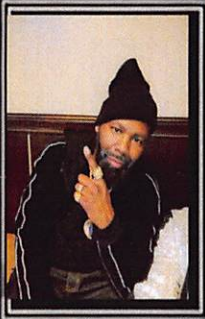

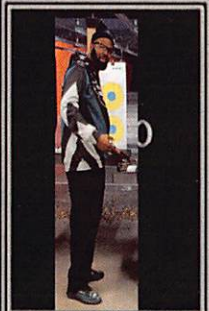

Now I've got you as my bright and shining
Guardian Star,
So, Fly like an Eagle My Baby.....

To Our Family & Friends

We the family of
Joseph Norman
Vincent Carter, extend
our heartfelt thanks
and appreciation for
all acts of kindness, love prayers & support during this time of bereavement.
Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.
May God bless each of you.

The Carter family

IN OUR HEARTS You're Always a Champion.

IN LOVING Memory
OF

ALWAYS A FAN
FOREVER
IN OUR HEARTS

JOSEPH NORMAN VINCENT CARTER

JANUARY 29, 1977

APRIL 15, 2026

Walkers Funeral Home

2625 Gilbert Ave.

Cinti, Oh 45206

Visitation 3:00p

Funeral 4:00pm

Celebration of Life
Order of Service

- ProcessionalMinister
- Opening PrayerMichael Rodriguez
- Scripture ReadingKimico Atkins
Old Testament
New Testament
- SelectionDonnita Carter
- Reflections (2 Minutes Please),,,,,.....Family & Friends
- Acknowledgements
- Obituary.....Read Silently
- SelectionDonnita Carter
- Recessional.....

 Repast will be held at Daly Shelter in Winton Woods @ 6pm

Joseph Carter was born on January 29, 1977, in Toledo, Ohio, to Anita Carter and Joseph Bolden. He was a beloved son, father, brother, fiancé, grandfather, and friend whose presence brought strength, laughter, wisdom, and unforgettable memories to all who knew him.

Joseph attended Millvale and Roosevelt Elementary Schools, Lockland Jr. High School, and Defiance High School. He later completed his studies at VanGuard Business School, always carrying an entrepreneurial spirit and a mind full of ideas.

Throughout his life, Joseph worked at Holiday Inn, Burger King, Kroger, Campbell's, and Laurel Nursing Home before stepping fully into his own vision and founding Carter's Cleaning Company & operating for 14yrs. He believed in hard work, creating opportunities, and helping others rise along the way. Whether it was repairing cars, employing someone who needed a chance, or simply showing up when people needed him most, Joseph gave from the heart.

In 2008, Joseph met his fiancée, Juanita Ellery, and together they built a beautiful life and welcomed two children, Johanna and Montize. Their love also created a quilted family with Juanita's three sons, Damon, Vernell, and Vernon, whom Joseph loved as his own.

Joseph and avid Eagles fan, had an ear for music, an eye for art, and a love for jewelry and cars. He was family-oriented to his core—deeply loving, fiercely loyal, and always willing to help anyone he could. He was a visionary, always thinking of the next master plan, and he had a gift for entertaining and bringing smiles to people's faces. His bright smile could light up any room, and his unforgettable sayings like "Who raised ya?" and "Yo-Say...yo, my Aunt Brenda!" became part of the joy he left behind.

Affectionately known as "Yogi Bear," a nickname lovingly given to him by his grandmother, Joseph carried a larger-than-life presence with warmth, humor, and heart. He loved his mother deeply, cherished his family, and lived with a spirit that touched many lives.

Joseph was preceded in death by his parents, Anita Carter-Bolden-Yett and Joseph Bolden; his sister, Effie Bolden; Don'le Ridley, his nephew and a host of beloved family and friends who welcomed him home.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving sisters, Lezlie Carter-Ware (Fred), Joy Carter, Victoria Carter, Dominic Duncan, Demetrus Hines, Sherry Hines, and Abby Fairbanks; his children, Johanna Carter and Montize Carter; his bonus children, Damon, Vernell, and Vernon Ellery-West; his cherished grandchildren, Jakir Ellery, Damon Jr., Vernell Jr., Colin, Emery, Lola, Ellery, and Kala West; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and dear friends.

Joseph was truly an amazing son, brother, father, grandfather, and friend. His laughter, wisdom, love, and unforgettable spirit will continue to echo through the lives he touched. Though he is no longer with us in the physical, his soul dances on—free, bright, and forever present.

He will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and never forgotten.