Dan's faith in Jesus guided everything he did. He was deeply involved in the Alpha program at his Church, helping others learn about Jesus and grow in their own spiritual journey. He found great joy in serving on annual mission trips to Ensenada, Mexico where he helped build homes and spread The Good News of Christ. Other activities included serving as an in-patient volunteer and ambassador fundraiser for cancer research at the U of M. He also sponsored children in need in various countries. His heart for service and his ability to purposefully connect with people made a lasting impact on everyone he met. It didn't matter what language you spoke, if you were blessed enough to meet Dan, you had a friend! An avid Minnesota Twins and Golden Gopher football fan, Dan rarely missed a game, always cheering with enthusiasm. He had a fulfilling and diversified career in the financial services sector for over 40 years. He was known not just for his expertise but for his genuine care for those with whom he worked. Above all, Dan cherished his faith, his family and his friendships. He loved deeply, laughed often, and always took the time to make others feel valued. His presence and ability to tell a story with passion will be sorely missed, but never forgotten. He had a special fondness in his heart for crab cakes, fish tacos, nut goodies and his two dearly loved daughters. His legacy of faith, love and kindness will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.
