Sally Felan, a woman of unwavering spirit and boundless love, was born on October 16, 1964, in Clifton, Texas. She departed this world on December 29, 2025, in Dallas, Texas, after a courageous battle with cancer, surrounded by the warm embrace of her family.

In life, Sally was a relentless force, always busy, always moving, and always deeply involved in the community that she cherished. With her ever-listening police scanner, she was not just a neighbor but the unofficial watchful guardian of her surroundings, ever ready to lend help and ensure the safety of those around her. Her uniquely balanced approach combined seriousness with a delightful sense of humor, making her both a trusted pillar and a ray of sunshine in the lives of many.

Sally's home was a refuge overflowing with laughter and warmth, rich with the scents of her kitchen where the true magic of her heart unveiled itself. Her love was most beautifully expressed through her culinary creations, especially her iconic tortillas, which weren't merely food but offered comfort, tradition, and warmth served with generous helpings of love. Meals shared among family were the cornerstone of her universe, underscoring her belief that togetherness was the heart of life.

An enthusiastic follower of wrestling, Sally treated match nights as sacred events, her loud cheers and passionate debates creating an atmosphere that transformed simple viewing into unforgettable gatherings. To meet her was to know a friend; by some divine gift, she knew how to make every individual feel welcome, valued, and remembered. If you encountered Sally once, you could be assured she would greet you like family on your next visit, with her remarkable ability to connect blooming into lasting relationships.

Survived by her cherished children, Marcella Davidson, Felicia Scruggs and her husband, Jason, and Veronica Davidson and her husband, Aubrey Wood, Sally's legacy continues through their love. Her grandchildren, Jason Wood, Olivia Wood, Dominic Vasquez, Dejah Vasquez, Demitris Vasquez, Dante Vasquez, Jason Scruggs Jr., Ryan Scruggs, Brylei Scruggs, Dylan Scruggs, as well as her great-grandchild, Kai Vasquez, and countless nieces and nephews, are all living testaments to the love she poured into her life.

*Missing
You Always*

You never said "I'm leaving,"
You never said "Goodbye,"
You were gone before we knew it and only GOD knows why.

In Life, I love you,

Dearly in Death, I love you still.

In my heart I hold a place that only you can fill,
it broke my heart to lose you,
but you didn't go ALONE.

A part of me went with you
the day God took you home.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Sally Felan
