

OBITUARY

Charles Edward Leck passed away on Sunday, August 10, 2025 in Fort Worth, Texas. He was born on September 30, 1952 in Fort Worth, Texas. Charles was his own man, often surprising you with his comings and goings along with his joking nature. He believed in being early wherever he went and showing up for those he cared about. He had a special kind of heart and was always willing to help others. Charles was an avid animal lover and sports-fan. The Texas Rangers and Dallas Cowboys were two of his favorite teams. He was known for his grilled pork chops and various pies he baked. Charles will be greatly missed.

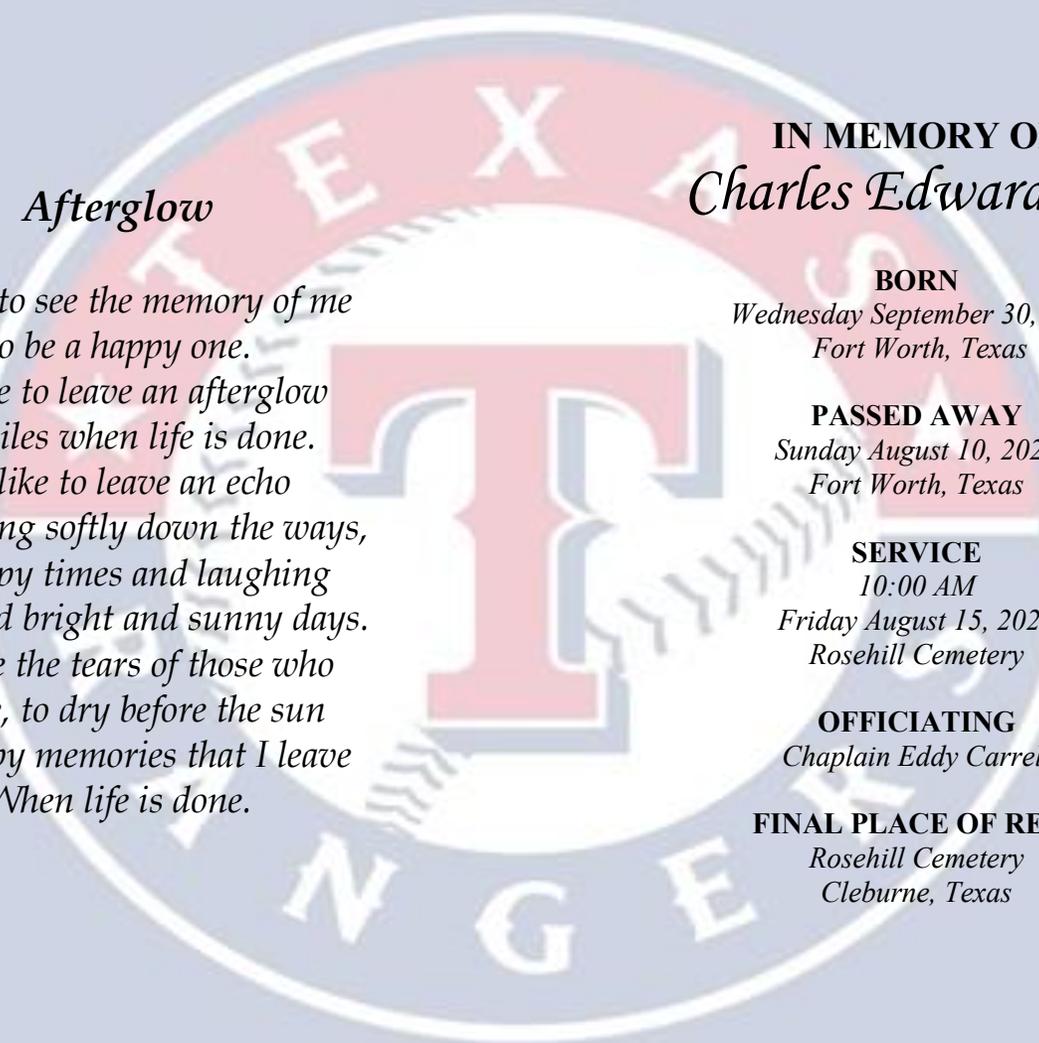

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ernest Lois Leck, Sr. and Lois Inez Blankenship Leck; wife, Regina "Gina" Kaye Leck; and brother, Ernest Leck, Jr.

Survivors include his daughter and son-in-law, Christy and Jason Pounders; stepdaughters Jodi White, Jami and David Murray; grandchildren, BriAnna Lorenz and her fiancé Joshua Gardner, Ty Jones, Garrett Pounders, Bailey Stokes & her husband, Thomas, Bailey Murray, Colton, Brooke, and Kailey White; great-granddaughter, Sutton Stokes; brother, Jerry Leck; sister-in-law, Verna Leck; numerous nieces, nephews and extended family members.

The background features a large, semi-transparent watermark of the Texas A&M University logo. It consists of a circular emblem with a red 'T' in the center, surrounded by a blue and white border. The words 'TEXAS' and 'AGRICULTURE' are written in white on a red background at the top, and 'MINING ENGINEERING' is written in white on a blue background at the bottom.

Afterglow

I'd like to see the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

*I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
of happy times and laughing
times and bright and sunny days.*

*I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.*
