

*Forever
In Our Hearts*

- IN APPRECIATION -

We gather not so much to mourn the dead as to confess our faith in a living Savior.
We come not to exhibit our grief but to recall our profound gladness
and solemn joy in Christ our living Lord.
Our hope is not based on the goodness of my uncle,
John Henry Singleton,
but the greatness of our God.
Our help is in the name of the Lord
who made heaven and earth.
It's with these thoughts that we express our sincere appreciation and gratitude for your many expressions of Sympathy and love, thank you, from my mouth to yours and God's ears.

Your Nephew,
Thomas Brown

Life Reflection

John Henry Singleton, 88, of Summerville, South Carolina, entered into eternal rest on June 16, 2026.

Born on June 30, 1937, in Charleston, South Carolina, John was the beloved son of the late Reverend Henry D. Singleton and Janie Delaney Singleton. He was also proceeded in death by his daughter Brenda Singleton-Hewlett. He was educated in the Charleston County School system before honorably serving his country in the United States Army, beginning in 1958.

Following his military service, John relocated to Brooklyn, New York, where he built a dedicated career with the United States Postal Service. While in New York, he married the love of his life, Louise Johnson, and together they owned and operated a grocery store, serving their community with pride and commitment. After many years of hard work, they retired and returned home to South Carolina, where they settled in Summerville.

John will be lovingly remembered as a devoted husband, father, and friend who led with humility, strength, and kindness. His calm presence, caring nature, and deep love for his family created a legacy that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Louise Singleton; his children: daughters Shaquan Jones, Sierra Singleton, Jessie Brown, and Ginger Jackson; sons William Singleton (Dionne), Barry Singleton, Dedrick Singleton (Sarah), Deandre Singleton, Jessie “Curtis” Johnson Jr., Larry Johnson, and Douglas Johnson.

He is also survived by his grandchildren: Latasha McMikle-Lawyer (Rodney), Thomas Brown (Mamiko), Shanequa Brown, Tiffany Brown (Pace), William “Diajai” Singleton, De’Kao Singleton, Dijion Singleton, Hannah Singleton, Taje’ Singleton, Jaiden Singleton, Leilani Singleton, Dahlina Johnson, Dasha Rampersant, Dashaun Johnson, Danea Johnson, Jasmine Martin, Michael Hewlett Jr., Sade Jackson, Markel Jackson, and Terrence Singleton; his stepmother Albertha Singleton; his siblings: sisters Barbara White, Janice Davidson (Dale), Donna Jenkins (Shannon), Dr. Johnette Simmons-Smith (Anthony) and Tammie Singleton; brother Edward Singleton (Deborah). He also will be remembered by a host of nieces, nephews, grand nieces, grand nephews, great-grandchildren, extended family and friends.

John’s legacy of love, dedication, and resilience will forever live on in the hearts of his family and all who had the privilege of knowing him. In Loving Memory, We Will Always Love and Miss You Always and Forever.

Footprints in the Sand

One night I had a dream... I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and Across the sky flashed scenes from my life. For each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; One belonged to me, and the other to the Lord. When the last scene of my life flashed before us, I looked back at the footprints in the sand. I noticed that many times along the path of my life, There was only one set of footprints.

I also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in my life This really bothered me, and I questioned the Lord about it.
“Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you,
You would walk with me all the way;
But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life,
There is only one set of footprints.
I don’t understand why in times when I needed you the most, you should leave me.

The Lord replied, “My precious, precious child. I love you, and I would never, never leave you during your times of trial and suffering.

When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you.
