Obituary

JANE ESTER MELVIN, beloved daughter of the late Nathaniel and Lessie Harold Melvin, was born November 23, 1940 in Baltimore Maryland. She departed this life on April 26, 2023 after a lengthy illness.

Jane received her education in the Baltimore Public School System, graduating from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. Later Jane attended Coppin State College where she received a dual degree in social science and political science in 1980. After which Jane worked as a social worker in the Glen Burnie area.

Jane was well loved by all, to know her was to love her. She lived life to the fullest with her children, nieces and nephews as well as her grandkids and her great-grandkids, placing them before herself. She had a special love for family and if she really cared about you, she called you "George".

Affectionately known as Mama to her children and grandchildren, she had a hand in raising them all. Jane loved to travel, all you had to do was say let's and she was ready to go. Mama had a special relationship with God, raised in the church as a child. She loved music and singing and had a massive collection of oldies but goodies. Oh and let's not forget her doll collection.

Jane was preceded in death by her parents, Nathaniel and Lessie; her three sisters, Evelyn Williams, Floree Melvin and Josephine Overton and her only brother, Nathaniel Melvin Junior. Mama leaves to cherish her memory: three children, Trane Brown, Cedric and Corwin Melvin; one daughter-in-law, Vondalier Melvin and one daughter-in-love, Kathy Morrow; ten grandchildren, Jaynel Reber, Cedric Melvin, Darrell Chapman Jr., Odyssey Melvin, Jarnay Brown, Jaren, Jalen and Jamel Melvin, Whitney and Sherell Shaw; and eight great-grandchildren, Kion, Cedric Junior (CJ), Darryl Tyree, Kaliyah, Sage, Dakai, Haize and Michael.

Mama's Poem

*Mama, we know the road was rough and the hills were hard to climb...
God saw this and gently close your eyes...
Your days of suffering and pain are gone...
You shall have peace and sweet rest...*

We love you!

Your Loving Children Trane, Cedric and Corwin

Grandma's Poem

*There's no love like our Grandma's love, lost for words, what do you say?
We love you Grandma, we will miss you Grandma.
You were always ready with encouraging words, laughs
And would dry tears away with a hug.
Grandma, you always knew what to say or do,
And for that we will miss you.
However, we will always carry you in our hearts.*

Love,

Your Grandchildren
