

"Weep Not for Me"

Weep not for me though I am gone into that gentle night. Grieve if you will, but not for long upon my soul's sweet flight. I am at peace, my soul's at rest; there is no need for tears. For with your love, I was so blessed for all those many years. There is no pain, I suffer not, the fear now all is gone. Put now these things out of your thoughts; in your memory I live on. Remember not my fight for breath, remember not the strife. Please do not dwell upon my death but celebrate my life.

Acknowledgment

Ruth L. Johnson's loss is felt by us all. We want to say thank you to everyone who sent a prayer, cards, flowers, or made a call. Their life here on Earth is done, but memories can be brought up in recall. Your kind words and sympathy are felt by us all in your endless empathy. Thank you.

Obituary

Ruth L. Johnson was born on January 27, 1930, in Nyota, Alabama to Sarah Lee and Louis Lockett Sr. She departed this earth on June 17, 2024. Ruth moved to Cincinnati, Ohio as a young woman after graduating from high school. She married and was the mother of four sons. Ruth believed in God and accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior.

Ruth was employed by the Internal Revenue Service and retired after many dedicated years of service. She was an avid gardener and enjoyed taking care of her plants and flowers, spending many hours in her greenhouse. Ruth lived a very active and independent life in her beloved home, where she was blessed to reside for over 60 years and knew many of her neighbors. She was a magnificent cook, known for her red velvet cake, and was always eager to share her delicious food with others.

Ruth was preceded in death by her sons Herman L. Cook Jr. and Anthony C. Johnson. She leaves to mourn her passing her devoted sons Michael Johnson and James Johnson. She also leaves behind 7 grandchildren: Julian Cook, Brittany Cook, Meneka Johnson, Rakkar Johnson (Vanity), Bianca Barker (Javon), Shaunice Johnson, and James Johnson Jr. (Kenyada). Ruth also had a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, and other family members.

Special thanks to her son Michael, who, along with her devoted niece Bonita Caulton-Heard, provided loving care for our dear Ruth.
