

Obituary

Steven Williams, a beloved son, brother, and father, who left us on January 24, 2025 at the age of 33. Steven Williams was born on December 13, 1991 in Raleigh, NC and was a cherished member of our family. As a son, he brought immense joy and pride to his parents, Pastor Dr. Helen Williams of Smithfield, NC and Stanley Williams Sr. of Fargo, ND. Always striving to make them proud and honoring their values.

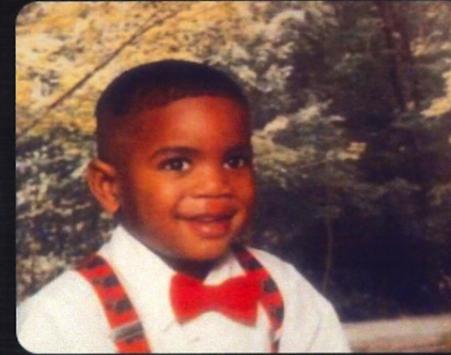

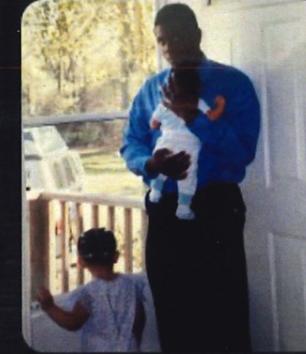

As a brother, he was a source of laughter and support, creating countless memories with his siblings, Stanley Williams Jr. of Fayetteville, NC, Shanda Scott-Davilla of Sanford, NC and Bentley Williams of Fargo, ND. Their bond was unbreakable, and his kindness and humor will be deeply missed. Steven was also a devoted father to Natalie Williams of Clayton, NC and Crystal Williams of Smithfield, NC who were the light of his life. He dedicated himself to being a loving and nurturing parent, always encouraging them to follow their dreams and instilling in them the importance of family and love. His legacy will live on through them.

Steven had a passion for playing drums, fishing, dogs and riding 4-wheelers which he shared with those around him. He had a unique ability to light up any room with his infectious smile and kind spirit. His warmth and generosity touched the lives of many, and he will be remembered for his unwavering support and love.

Steven was preceded in death by his grandparents Samuel and Fannie Madison, aunts Carolyn Artis and Teresa Barnes.

Steven leaves to cherish his memory grandparents Henry and Deborah David of Queens, NY and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Steven Williams may be gone, but his spirit and love will forever remain in our hearts. Rest in peace, Steven. You will be missed more than words can express.

Poem For Steven

In the quiet of our hearts, a light will always shine.
For a soul so pure and gentle, a love so divine.
Just thirty-three, he walked this earthly way.
With kindness and compassion, brightening our day.
His laughter still echoes, a melody so sweet.
Every cherished moment, in the lives he'd greet.
With faith as his compass, he faced the storms of life.
A constant of strength amid struggles and strife.
He rests in glory, embraced by heaven's grace.
In the arms of our Savior, he's found his rightful place.
As we grieve in sorrow, our hearts heavy with pain.
We hold onto the promise, we'll see him once again.
Let us share the love he freely gave away.
With kindness and in joy, let his memory stay.
For every tear we shed, and every prayer we send.
For the life he gave, our beloved son, brother, uncle and friend.
