

Life's Reflections

Eddie "Tubu" Taylor was the son of the late James and Dorothy Taylor. He was born on November 8, 1959. Eddie entered into eternal rest on January 3, 2026, at Lexington Medical Center. He was united in holy matrimony to Debora Dennis Taylor.

"Tubu", as he was affectionately known, was educated in the public schools of Sumter County. His favorite hobbies were gardening, farming, and watching movies. He was employed at M.B. Khan where he was a well-respected foreman; and he was the co-owner of Taylor's Perfect Bite.

Tubu was preceded in death by both of his parents, James Taylor, Sr. And Dorothy Taylor; grandson, Ezra Jones; sister, Earlene Bradley; brothers, James Taylor, Jr. and Frank Taylor; father and mother-in-law, Deacon Eddie Dennis and Deaconess Alberta S. Dennis.

Those left to cherish his loving memory include: his loving wife, Debora Taylor; daughter, Reagan Taylor; son, Roman (Tomika) Jones; granddaughter, Klarity Taylor; siblings, Georgia Taylor, Katherine Taylor, Matthew (Barbara) Washington, Earnest Taylor, Harry (Angela) Taylor, Charlie Taylor, William Loney, Angela Dennis, Rev. Andrea (Thaddeus) Dickey, and Cassandra (Rev. A.J.) Bracy; uncles, Robert Wright, Sr. and Charlie Taylor; aunts, Rovenia Harris, Naomi Polk, Suzanne Sims, Susan Sims, Hattie Washington, Isabella Taylor, and Geraldine Washington; sisters-in-law, Angie Taylor, Mary Taylor and Lettie Taylor; special nieces, Rovelda Germy McBride, Rian Dennis and Natia Walker; special nephew, Joshua "Big Boy" Bracy; special friends, Frederick Ruff, Francis Campbell and Gene Dawkins; Godparents, Deacon Thomas Hampton and Deaconess Pollett Hampton, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family and many sorrowing friends who will miss him dearly.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And when the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know;
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.*

In Tribute

*The time has come for me to leave this life.
I have fought the good fight.
I have finished the race.
I have kept the faith.
Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness
which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day.*
